FIRST UNITED STATES MILITIA CROSSES MEXICAN BORDER TODAY

Reports of Large Forces of Carranza Forces Concentrating Near Guzman Heard

NEW MEXICO GUARDSMEN GO

Attempt to Break Line of Communication is Feared—Cavalry Remounts Returned

ILLINOIS REGIMENT GOES

Two Others From Same State Will Leave Tonight For Border—Indiana Batteries Ready

(By United Press.)
Columbus, N. M., June 29.—Reports that large Carranza forces were concentrating at Guzman in a position to cut the American communication lines, resulted in several motor truck loads of New Mexico militia being sent into Mexico to bring back cavalry horses which were approaching Guzman under a small guard.

The use of the New Mexico national guardsmen to escort the cavalry horses back out of possible danger was the first militiamen have crossed the border into Mexico.

The report and quick movement of troops from the Columbus base camp caused the greatest excitement today. Rumors that the field telegraph lines south had been cut proved unfounded.

An aeroplane at General Pershing's headquarters is expected to make a reconnaissance around Guzman to investigate the reports of trouble.

The cavalry remounts left yesterday and went into camp for the night about seven miles south of the border where they were overtaken and turned back. Guzman is only twenty miles from the present American communication lines.

ORDER RELEASING TROOPERS CONFIRMED

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 29.—Official confirmation of General Carranza's order to release American prisoners at Chihuahua City reached the war department today. Consul Rodgers wired the prisoners had been released and it is understood at the state department the full text of Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note threatening "grave consequences" will arrive today.

Danger of immediate hostilities between the United States and Mexico has been averted. With the release by General Carranza of the American prisoners, a big step has been taken in avoiding the "gravest consequences." There is yet much to be done, however.

Rushville Soldier Boys Are Receiving Guests from Home

Daily the contingent of Rushville young men who have enlisted and are in camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison with the Indiana National Guard receive scores of friends from "back home," and daily, also, friends of the "boys" bring back stories of their activities at the camp.

The report that all of the fellows from here who have enlisted in the state militia are in Battery B was confirmed by Rushville men who visited Camp Ralston yesterday afternoon. Dr. Hale Pearsey, Walter Gartin and Allan H. Blackledge have had the good fortune to be bunk mates and are all installed in the same tent. It was also reported that both Gartin and Blackledge had been chosen gunners' mates.

Battery B bids fair to be the most

MEDIATION OFFER NOW IS USELESS

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 29.—Any offer of Pan-American mediation just now would be useless in view of the absence of knowledge of Carranza's attitude towards the United States, Bolivian Minister Calderon was informed by Secretary Lansing today.

Lansing, however, did not throw cold water on a possible future mediation offer and Calderon indicated he would probably make an offer formally after official word comes from Carranza.

How fully the Mexican crisis has been modified will not be known until the text of Carranza's reply to President Wilson's two recent notes reach Washington. The president wished to know what the first chief's attitude is to be in the future, his explanation of the Carrizal fight and whether or not his future intentions embody co-operation with the American forces in Mexico or opposition to their work.

FIRST ILLINOIS LEAVES FOR THE BORDER TODAY

Chicago, June 29.—The First Illinois infantry which entrained at Springfield last night was the only militia unit in the central department of the army enroute to the border early this afternoon, reports to the department showed.

Two other Illinois regiments are to leave late today or tonight. Wisconsin is about ready to entrain.

The Second Kansas Infantry reported its readiness to leave for the border tomorrow. The First Kansas will go July 2 and the battery signal corps July 3.

Two Indiana batteries are ready to leave for the border at any time, but the other Indiana troops will be held a few days.

CARRANZA SAYS U. S. NOTE IS NOT A REPLY.

Mexico City, June 29.—General Carranza's reply to the American note threatening "grave consequences" if the American forces are attacked and reciting alleged Mexican outrages, will allege that several of President Wilson's statements are based on unauthenticated information, it was learned here today. The reply itself has not been completed. But General Carranza himself indicated something of its character in an address to a group of students last night.

"The American note, purporting to be an answer to the Mexican note, is in reality not an answer at all, but a series of charges," he said. "A reply is being prepared, rectifying these statements. The American note and the reply will be given to the public here as soon as possible."

PRICE RESIGNS AS POLICEMAN

Motorcycle Cop Leaves Force July 1, to Accept Place With Fire Extinguishing Co.

BASIL SEWARD APPOINTED

Policeman Orla Price has resigned from the local force, his resignation to take effect July 1. His place will be taken by Basil Seward, who is promoted from the fire department. Mr. Price has accepted a position as superintendent of construction of the General Fire Extinguishing Company of Cleveland and will go to Zanesville, Ohio, Saturday to take up his new work.

Mr. Price has been on the police force here since January 17. Basil Seward, who becomes a policeman, has been a member of the fire department since the paid department was organized. He also has done police duty and is well acquainted with the work. The fire committee has not made known the man who will take Seward's place on the fire department.

With the passing of Price Rushville will lose its motorcycle cop, unless the council sees fit to buy the machine and Policeman Price is not very anxious to sell.

SIXTY MILLION ADDED.

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 29.—Sixty million dollars was added to the house draft of the army bill by the senate military committee in a four hour session today. Due to the Mexican situation, it is expected that at least $40,000,000 more will be added before the bill is finally reported to the senate.

LATEST FIND IS COMPLICATED

Second Auto Harry Flodder Stole and Sold to George Davis Changes Hands Twice

OWNER TO BE REIMBURSED

Police of Many Cities are Anxious to Get at the Davis Gang—Charges at Anderson

Another car stolen by Harry Flodder and alleged to have been sold through Elmer Hite to George Davis of Clarksburg, self-confessed auto thief, was recovered yesterday afternoon in Greensburg. Davis in his confession told of two cars stolen by Flodder, in which Hite and another local boy were implicated. With the recovery of the car yesterday at Greensburg, both machines have been accounted for as the other one was found here yesterday on possession of Conrad Kney.

The car held by Mr. Kney was the property of Frank G. Camp, 40 Virginia Avenue, Indianapolis and the car recovered in Greensburg was the property of Edwin L. Craig, 738 East Drive Woodruff Place. The Greensburg case was a little more complicated than the others. Davis bought the car of the local men and in turn traded it to A. P. Powell, owner of a garage there. Powell then sold the stolen car to Win Shepherd and it was found in the possession of Shepherd by the officers yesterday. The officers were home earlier in the day and from here went to Clarksburg and Greensburg.

Powell stated that he would reimburse Shepherd and then try to get recourse from Davis as he believes the car he traded Davis is in Indianapolis. It is almost an endless chain and also very complicated. With the finding of this car in Greensburg the two cars alleged to have been taken by Flodder, which implicates the other local boy, have been accounted for.

It developed yesterday that some trouble was likely to result when the officers attempted to take the machine away from John Leakey of New Lisbon, Henry county. Mr. Hollensbe was not entirely satisfied that the car belonged to Mr. Leakey and did not take to the idea of losing $225 that he paid for the car. Some legal complications are expected. The officers hardly expect the owners of these stolen machines to give them up quietly.

Conrad Kney, a well known farmer of near Manilla who yesterday gave up his Ford, was here yesterday afternoon with a Shelbyville attorney. Kney paid George Davis $300 for the machine and did not like the idea of giving up the car without getting some of his money back.

Persons who have investigated George Davis' financial standing declare that he is not worth a penny. At first it was given out that he had an account of $3,000 in the Clarksburg bank, but it now develops that there is an overdraft against him so any hopes that the holders of stolen cars bought from Davis have of getting their money back appear to be smashed.

Because of the wide activity of the Davis gang the affair has been rather complicated and the matter has become confused to some. The gang will be prosecuted in Union county, although charges could be brought against them in 6 counties.

Yesterday charges were filed against George and Roy Davis in Anderson. They are charged with stealing a machine belonging to Roy Stottlemeyer. The Anderson officials want Davis in case something should happen and he should not be tried in Union county.

CASE GOES TO HIGHER COURT

Special Judge Blair Overrules Motion for New Trial In Potts-Churchill Case

QUESTIONS ARE DISCUSSED

Blair Also Hears Motion for New Trial in Case in Which Harry Hudson Was Awarded $1.

Judge Alonzo Blair of the Shelby circuit court, on the local bench this morning, overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Bertha Potts against the estate of the late Jefferson Churchill. An appeal was granted to the appellate court; ninety days given in which to file a bill of exceptions and thirty days given in which to file the bond of $2,500.

The case has been a hard fought one and involved deeds to property valued at $20,000. The action was to set aside the deeds in which the late Mr. Churchill conveyed the property to his son Earl Churchill. The case was originally tried before Judge John D. Megee, who found for the defendants. The motion for a new trial was then argued before Judge Blair.

The passing of the Potts-Churchill case from this court was the one hundred and fifth case taken from the docket this term. In ruling on the motion for a new trial Judge Blair stated the question involved in the case hinged on the delivery of the deeds and the intentions of Mr. Churchill.

According to the testimony, the deeds were drawn up by Marsh Stevens who in turn drew up the will of Mr. Churchill. The deeds were placed in the Rushville National bank. The court held that this act alone did not constitute actual delivery, but because the deeds were mentioned in the will of Mr. Churchill his intentions were plainly shown. The deeds were left at the bank until after his death. Judge Blair stated that in his opinion there could be little doubt as to the intentions despite the fact that an actual delivery possibly had not been made.

While here today Judge Blair also heard the motion for a new trial in the case of Harry Hudson against the estate of the late Jared Binford. The jury which heard the case returned a verdict for Hudson in the sum of $1. He demanded $7,000. The reason assigned for a new trial is that the verdict of the jury was not justified.

Judge Blair also heard an argument on a demurrer in the case of Pearl Short against Orbie Short, an action to modify a decree.

Judge Fred Gause was also here this morning attending to some legal business in several cases in which he is special judge.

LAWYERS TO HOLD PICNIC

Details Are Lacking, But it is Certain
There Will be "Eats"

The members of the Rush County Bar Association will enjoy a picnic Monday afternoon. It is planned to make the event an annual affair. Details are lacking, but the main thing will be the "eats." The lawyers will find a spot on the banks of Flatrock, yet to be selected, and there throw the feed. There will be plenty of sport for all, according to the committee on arrangements.

FAMILIES ARE WELL CARED FOR

Homer Honor System at Meadow Prison is Accomplishing Great Good According to Warden.

HUMAN NATURE PLAYS PART

Sees That the Innocent Outside Are Protected and That the Depend-ants Get Food.

(By United Press.) Albany, N. Y., June 29.—While the Welfare League of Sing Sing is being much discussed today the Homer Honor System at the Great Meadow prison in Comstock is going on quietly accomplishing its reward in a host of redeemed men.

William J. Homer, warden at Great Meadow and his wife, known by the prisoners as "Our Lady of Comstock," are meeting with success because they know human nature and its needs.

"No man can be bettered in prison if his mind is ill at ease because he fears for his relatives outside," says Warden Homer today.

"Therefore, the first thing that is done when a man enters Great Meadow is to care for his family, see that it is protected and that the innocent will not suffer outside the prison walls while the guilty suffer within.

"The normal man is made out of the normal criminal by ethical, educational, physical and spiritual methods at Great Meadow.

"If a man is physically defective he can not reform until his weakness has been obviated."

Therefore Warden Homer deals with each man as an individual. One man may need to be placed where he can live in close touch with nature, so he is given work on the prison farm, while another man may be possessed with a desire for knowledge, he is placed at work in the prison library, or is given some sort of clerical work that will help him meet his desires.

Common sense love and charity are combined at Great Meadow and that is why 100 per cent of its men are making parole and 97½ per cent of its graduates are making good.

LOCALS WILL FACE STIFF OPPOSITION

National 40's, Which Will Play Here Sunday, Have Several Former Big Leaguers

AN OLD FED STAR WILL PITCH

In the lineup of the National 40's the Indianapolis team that will play here Sunday will be found several big leaguers, indicating the Rushville team will face stiff opposition. Powers, who was with the Newark Reds, last year will be in the box for the Indianapolis team. The lineup is as follows: Powers or Phillips, pitcher; Fisher, first; Grimes, short; Lane, third; Miller, center field; Huffbauer, right field; Rubush, left; Shoneyer, second; Atchinson, catch and Singleton, utility.

The Rushville team has been strengthened and will present the best lineup of the year. The team will lineup as follows: H. Hawk, left; Litch, short; Sharp, right; Tompkins, first; Spacey, catch; Hawk, second; Miller, third; Yazel, center; Hudelson, pitcher and Doll, Todd and Combs, utility. The game will be called at three o'clock and as this is a guaranteed attraction a large crowd is expected.

OLD RING STAR GOES TO FRONT

Frank Slavin is With a Canadian Regiment Awaiting Call to go to France

TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

Recalls Fight With Frank Gotch in Yukon—Claimed Foul in Third Round

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) BY WILBUR S. FORREST London, June 15—(By Mail)—How Frank Gotch, champion wrestler, mixed wrestling with boxing against Frank Slavin, the veteran ringman, in the Yukon, is a story just told here for the first time.

Slavin, who has grown much greyer than he appeared twenty years ago as a ring favorite, is now in England with the latest Canadian contingent. His little mix with Gotch happened years ago when Gotch, under the name of Kennedy, was at Dawson in the Yukon trying to fix up wrestling matches when everybody wanted to see prize fights.

Here today Slavin staged the story with Jack Londonish settings - grizzled miners looking through blue tobacco smoke at the ring in Dawson's main emporium. Gotch, failing in wrestling matches agreed to take Slavin on for a ten round bout.

"In the first two rounds he came at me strong" related the old soldier-fighter. "I floored him two or three times. Then in the third round he dodged in and before I knew what was happening, he gripped me around the waist and threw me up in the air.

"I laughed, the referee laughed and in fact we all laughed. The referee said: 'Do you claim a foul?'

"I said: 'Well, if I don't I suppose I'll never be able to come back into the ring again', so, of course, I got the decision. But the big American farmer got more money out of it than he ever got for his wrestling bouts up there."

Slavin just now is delighting British sporting writers with his reminiscences. They flock to the military camp where Slavin's regiment is waiting for the call to France.

In Slavin's 54 years he has been a pioneer in the Australian bush and the Klondike as well as a leading prize ring favorite in England, America, Australia and Alaska. Before he was eighteen he had made $12,000 in the Australian gold field.

He then came to England and closed five years of boxing with his defeat of Peter Jackson.

Then he went to America and drifted into the prize ring limelight by knocking out Jack Kilrain in less than a round. San Francisco was the next stop.

"Those were the days before the big strike on the Yukon," said Slavin today, "but I decided to take the trip there through British Columbia. When we arrived in Alaska, my partner and I staked a claim on the Forty Mile river and I started to Skagway - 600 miles over the ice behind a dog team to get a guarantee for the concession.

"I got the concession and they gave me the official mail to carry back to the Government at Yukon. The concession is still working today - in fact, it has a hydraulic plant capable of handling 15,000 cubic yards a day."

Slavin related the cutting of the White Pass trail from the summit of White Pass to Lake Bennett in 1897. When he returned home his wife had given him up for dead.

"I made the first map of the White Pass and the railroad there now does not leave the route that my party followed by more than forty yards at any point," said Slavin.

Slavin has been a Canadian Justice of the Peace in late years.

Slavin's only son, Frank Charles Slavin (named after Charlie Mitchell) stands 6 feet, 1½ inches, like the elder Slavin. He is a sergeant-major in the Yukon company of the Western Scots and expects to come to Europe and take a hand in the fighting.

TO KEEP OFFICERS FROM TAKING HIM

Omar Stevens Obtains Writ of Habeas Corpus to Prevent Citation for Contempt

OUTGROWTH OF DIVORCE SUIT

Omar Stevens obtained a writ of habeas corpus this morning against Sheriff Cavitt of this county and William Hendrickson, sheriff of Fayette county, to prevent the officers from taking him to Fayette county to face a charge of contempt of court. The notice was served on Sheriff Cavitt by Coroner Lowell M. Green, as the sheriff was disqualified because the action was against himself.

The actual trial is set for tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. There is said to be a long story back of the present incident. The start was with the Huffman divorce suit tried in Fayette county. Mrs. Dessie Huffman is a niece of Stevens' and George Huffman, her husband was granted the divorce and the custody of their three-year-old son, with the stipulation that Mrs. Huffman should have him over Sunday every other week. On one of these visits the boy was taken ill and has been at the Stevens home ever since.

Now Stevens is cited for contempt of court and the habeas corpus proceeding resulted in order to keep him from appearing in Fayette county.

DEMAND IS MADE FOR NAVAL BASE

People of Northwest Insist That Entrance of Columbia River be Better Protected

REASONS ARE POINTED OUT

Two Bills Pending in Congress—Pacific Coast at This Point is Helpless

BY JOHN BARTRAM KELLY (Written for United Press.)

Portland, Ore., June 29.—From Montana to the Pacific Ocean there has arisen during recent months a demand, persistent and serious, that the mouth of the greatest river on the Pacific Coast of America, the entrance to the 250,000 square miles of American territory, known as the Columbia Basin and the Inland Empire, receive governmental recognition by the establishment there of a naval base of the first class, with adequate fortifications to protect this investment.

The acorn from which this mighty oak of sentiment has grown is known as the Columbia Naval Committee.

In January F. C. Harley and Wallace R. Struble started the movement in Astoria.

The necessity for the naval base was an easy matter to prove. The Pacific Coast is so helpless at this moment that our military experts say that in case of an invasion the first stand American troops could make would be in the Bear River Valley in Utah. That means the evacuation of the Pacific Northwest.

Our naval base at Bremerton is entirely unprotected from a flank or rear attack so long as there is no adequate defense at the mouth of the Columbia. Furthermore, it is located 132 miles from the ocean and its entrance is dominated by territory of the greatest sea power in the world.

Strategically, the mouth of the Columbia is the key to the Northwest. From it to Alaska is open American roadstead and the shortest route.

It is the nearest point to Yokohama.

It is the entrance to the wheat belt, to three-fourths of our trans-continental lines, to a 500 mile navigable waterway, and to the only water grade route to the Northwest.

These are arguments which the residents of the basin considered before making their demands.

Commercial bodies of Eugene, Salem, Portland and Astoria have endorsed the movement. In March the city of Spokane, uniting with the naval base committee, held a preparedness convention in which five states were represented. This convention was held at the suggestion of P. N. Bernard of Kalispell, Mont.

Six hundred Portland business men have sent a long omnibus telegram to Washington in six sections, urging the necessity of the naval base. The present status of the campaign is considered favorable.

Secretary Daniels is considering the naval report of 1900 in conjunction with the army report of 1916.

Chairman of naval committees in the House and Senate are both friendly to the Hawley and Lane bills for the establishment of the naval base.

IS GIVEN POLICE POWERS

Residents in the neighborhood of the city park are watching closely the squirrels in the city park to see that no harm comes to them. The law governing the killing of squirrels is out on July 1, and any person mean enough could go to a worse place than the city park for his hunting. The police will protect the squirrels and arrests will surely follow, they say. In order better to protect the little animals three or four persons living in the neighborhood of the park have been given power by the police to make arrests if they find anyone shooting the squirrels.

- Miss Jean McClanahan, who has been a student in Randolph-Macon college, at Lynchburg, Va., and has spent the last three weeks visiting in the east as the guest of Miss Madaline Lord, returned to her home in this city today to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. McClanahan.

ISAIAH ALFORD DEAD

Isaiah Alford, 68 years old, a well known farmer living north of Raleigh, was found dead in the barnyard at his home yesterday morning. Death was caused by heart disease. He is survived by two brothers.

Amusements

The Princess offers the three reel feature "The Caliph of the New Bagdad" for the first picture tonight. Leah Baird, Van Dyke Brook and an all-star cast produce this drama, which is said to be a powerful story of modern times. The other picture is a comedy entitled "A Double-Barreled Courtship." Tomorrow, matinee and night the six act feature, "The Raven" will be shown. Henry Walthall and Wardha Howard are featured.

"Arrows of Hate" is the title of the 9th episode of the Pathe serial "The Iron Claw" which is shown at the Gem theatre today. Pearl White, Creighton Hale and Sheldon Lewis are featured. In this number Legar continues to carry on his villainous work but he is again foiled by Davy and The Laughing Mask. Who is the Laughing Mask? A comedy entitled "Bughouse Bell-Hops," which features Lonesome Luke, that Funny Fellow, completes the program. Tomorrow Billie Ritchie will be seen in an L-Ko comedy "A Friend—but a Star Boarder." "The Crimson Trail" a two act Imp feature will also be shown.

Days Pickings

- A marriage license was issued yesterday to Edgar O. Price and Jessie R. Wills.
- Kennard Allen is ill at his home in West Second street, being threatened with appendicitis.
- Returns from the Dillon-Moran fight tonight will be received at Jack's Smokehouse, over the Daily Republican's leased wire.
- Mrs. Mary Junken of Arlington suffered a painful injury Tuesday when she fell from a chair on which she was standing and fractured her leg directly above the knee. Mrs. Junken is 74 years of age, and is well known throughout the country.
- A telegram bearing the signatures of twenty Richmond residents has been sent to Congressman Finly Gray at Washington urging him to support the bill before congress for the censorship of motion picture films.
- Rushville will have to share the spotlight with Columbus because yesterday the officials found a wagon load of automobile parts on the farm of George Bisel, south of Columbus, which is expected to clear up the mystery of several stolen cars. On information from Columbus, Indianapolis officers arrested Donald Jackson and "Darby" Sherill for automobile thefts. These two men, it is alleged, have been driving the cars to the Bisel farm and they have over for selling.

A large attendance is desired at the meeting of the Rush County Amusement Association tonight at the court house. New officers are to be elected and the meeting is important.

Chief of Police Yakey has received a circular asking him to be on the watch for Martha Stewart, 14, and Charles C. Wheatley, 26, who eloped from Carrollton, Ohio, on June 3. Wheatley is a brother-in-law of the girl and had been married only three months when he eloped with his wife's younger sister.

Notice of Final Settlement of Estate.

Notice is hereby given to the creditors, heirs and legatees of Lena Brookbank, deceased, to appear in the Rush Circuit Court, held at Rushville, Indiana, on the 4th day of Sept., 1916, and show cause, if any, why FINAL SETTLEMENT ACCOUNTS with the estate of said decedent should not be approved; and said heirs are notified to then and there make proof of heirship, and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, the Clerk of said Court, this 14th day of June, 1916.

RETURNS FIVE INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury Reports and is Discharged by Court.

The grand jury returned a total of five indictments this afternoon and was finally discharged for the term by Judge Sparks. No intimation was given as to the indictments, the entire list being kept secret. Clerk Taylor stated that no warrants were likely to be issued this evening so that no arrests are expected before tomorrow. The grand jury examined a total of eleven witnesses today. The grand jury was in session three days.

The Voice of a Nation.

No more convincing demonstration of the vitality of religion in the United States could be found than the result of the appeals of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America for systematic and continuous giving to the war relief funds in this country. In every community, whether a church of one of the thirty denominations which constitute the Federal Council exists there or not both secular and denominational committees for war relief are being formed.

The effect of the Federal council's first appeal, sent out on May 15 to 100,000 ministers, did not stop with them and the 17,724,509 communicants under their charge, but seemed automatically to create a new atmosphere in the nation. In response to the request of many of the representatives of the war relief organizations which have benefited by this new spirit of unselfishness and self-sacrifice a second appeal was sent out this month, but not to the churches alone.

The second appeal was through the clergy to the entire people, but it also went direct to Chambers of Commerce, Business Men's Associations, Women's Clubs and similar bodies, and to the Mayors of cities and Governors of States. Many public men, of all political affiliations, have signified their approval of this movement. The nation has found voice in this largest inclusive body of its kind of the world.

No new war relief fund has been added to the existing organizations. The Federal Council acts only as a channel or clearing house, except in special cases. But many checks for distribution to the various existing funds have come to it direct. Some of the contributions are in cash. "I send you herewith $1.74 for Belgium war relief," wrote one man from Harlem, Ga. "You will please let me know if this goes right so I can send again." The tattered bill and battered change which he enclosed arrived miraculously intact. A minister and his wife wrote that their entire monthly income was $80. They sent $40, and promised to send that amount each month as long as it was needed. A southern minister wrote that a widow of his congregation had "offered her little mite, which I have eked out to a dollar." Contributions have ranged as high as $2400 and come from secular as well as religious bodies.

"All that has been given," said Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, General Secretary of the Federal Council, "is but a drop in the bucket compared to the awful widespread misery in Europe and Asia. The contributions from this country so far have amounted to scarcely more than a dollar for each suffered abroad. So long as this war lasts, and for months thereafter, no matter how much is given it will not be enough."

President Wilson gave Huerta a certain length of time to salute the flag. He also put a time limit on the demand for the release of American troops held prisoners at Chihuahua City. Let's hope he has better success this time.

Who will say now that a corporation has no patriotism or soul? Many of the large ones of the country are paying their National Guard employees their full salaries while they are on the border or in Mexico.

The ornamental flower boxes which were used in the business district of the city last summer were beautiful; but so much can be said for them because they are among the things that are missed.

We are informed that rubber was introduced into the United States in 1800. This, however, does not include that of the neck variety.

We once heard a preacher say that a rich man has a hard time crawling into heaven. But that isn't disturbing our blissful dreams.

They say that more married men than bachelors are fighting in England. Out of the frying pan into the fire?

Soon, now, we will begin to learn more details of our state of unpreparedness.

If you say something when you talk you may be asked to talk again.

Are we taking a mild summer plunge or a full Mexican bath?

Peace with honor, if we may; war to the hilt, if we must.

A guilty conscience never has to be told of its guilt.

John U. Pettit.

John U. Pettit was one of the foremost judges produced in the hundred years of Indiana history. He was born in New York of good English stock, Sept. 11, 1820 and came to Indiana in 1840. He was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law at Wabash.

In 1844 Pettit was elected to the legislature and in 1850 was appointed United States Consul. After two years in the consular service he returned to take up the practice of law. Soon after returning he was appointed district judge. He served three terms in Congress and was speaker of the Indiana House of representatives in 1865.

Because of his able work on the bench he was appointed professor of law in Indiana University.

AMERICANISM IS NOT AN ISSUE

Republican Association Says it is Insult to People to Question Candidate's Patriotism

REAL ISSUE OVERLOOKED

Maintenance of American Rights and Protection of Her Industries Leading Questions

Washington, June 29.—The Republican Publicity association, through its president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington headquarters:

"Maintenance of National dignity.
"Protection to American industries.
"Efficiency in Government service.
"Economy in National expenditures.

"These are policies successfully administered by the Republican party with resultant pride in American citizenship, prosperity in American business, and progress in American Government. They are policies in the administration of which the Democratic party has dismally failed, with consequent decline of American prestige, destruction of American industry and deterioration in public service.

"Upon the sincere advocacy of these policies and its demonstrated faithfulness in the performance of campaign pledges, the Republican party has won many victories in the past and upon these it will win again in November next.

"The so-called 'Americanism' of candidates is not and cannot be an issue in this or any other national campaign. To assume that any candidate who could be nominated by either party would be even subject to suspicion as to his loyalty to his country, is an insult to the intelligence of half the people of the United States.

"The soundness of judgment, stability of purpose and force of character of the individual candidate may well be a subject for discussion, but the question of the unqualified patriotism of the head of either ticket is too absurd for contemplation.

"The principles of the two parties, the records of accomplishment, the promises for the future, will be the basis for discussion and for the conclusion reached by the voters of the country, whose only purpose is to determine which party and which candidates best can serve.

"Efforts to divert attention from the real issues before the country are a practical admission that the party so endeavoring is ashamed of its record and afraid of free and open discussion.

Fans of Warsaw are Assured Big Day July Fourth.

(By United Press.)

Warsaw, June 29.—Fans of this city are assured of a day of racing July the Fourth. Entries closed today for both the horse and motorcycle events that are to be staged at the State Fair grounds.

The motorcycle events include a twenty-five mile, one ten mile and a five mile race, and some of the best riders have been entered by the different factories of the country. Entries have been kept down so that not more than eight men are permitted to enter any one event thereby giving the riders a better chance to "open up."

All the race will be under the direction of the Federation of American Motorcycleists with John Kinney, state referees, officiating.

Families in Germany go Without Meat for Days and Weeks at a Time—Is Some Luxury

LITTLE WORK FOR BUTCHERS

Dresden Business Man Relates His Experience Telling How Difficult it is to Obtain

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Rotterdam, May 27—(By Mail)—Many families in Germany go meatless for days and weeks at a time. This I have from a neutral business man of Dresden.

"It's as bad as housecleaning to get meat. It upsets our whole household economy as well as our financial economy. Its a dreadful operation and we don't go through it oftener than we have to. In the last sixteen days we have had meat twice.

"Fish, new asparagus just in the market, potatoes, spinach and dry, crumbling war bread made largely of potato flour, make up our list of edibles. We get so tired of it we hate to go to our table. Sometimes we even get so tired of it we decide we'll have meat. Then there's trouble."

He was requested to go into the details of a meat purchase in a German town.

"Well, its like this," he said, lighting a good cigar; (in some mysterious way a huge shipment of Havana cigars direct from Cuba reached Berlin the other day); "When we decide to have meat my wife and I talk it over the night before. If the next day is Tuesday or Friday we can't buy anything but fish, for those are meatless days.

"My wife calls our maid, and says: 'Elizabeth, we want you to buy a beefsteak for us tomorrow. Elizabeth frowns and goes out.

"This means that Elizabeth must get up at four o'clock the next morning and go to the nearest butcher shop and stand in line until her turn comes to buy meat or until the butcher comes to the door and says to the waiting line: 'I'm all sold out of meat.'

"It is always a four or five hour job for her, unless she wants to get into the queue at 1 o'clock in the morning, as some maids do.

"When my wife and I get up Elizabeth is down at the butcher shop and so I have to make the fires while my wife gets breakfast. I go off to the office and Elizabeth comes home at 8 or 9 o'clock, sore on the whole world.

"Sometimes she has been able to get meat but more often than not she comes back empty handed.

"Officially there are only two meatless days a week but in reality you find the butcher shops meatless day after day.

"I call up my wife sometimes during the morning to find out whether we are going to have meat for supper. If she says we are, I'm happy all day. You'd be surprised to know how much difference a little meat makes."

"How much would Elizabeth pay for a beefsteak?"

"Five marks and a half a pound. 'How we linger over supper when we have meat. Elizabeth hasn't done any work all day. She has been upset by her morning experience.

"You read of food riots in Berlin. That was only Elizabeth and her fellow maid fighting to keep their places in line.

"But about supper time Elizabeth wakes up, cooks the meat and brings it in with smiles all over her face. She knows she'll get her share. But if we asked her to go out for meat every meat day, she wouldn't stay with us.

"That's where the rich folks come in. They can hire maids who have no other work but to go through the meat raid daily.

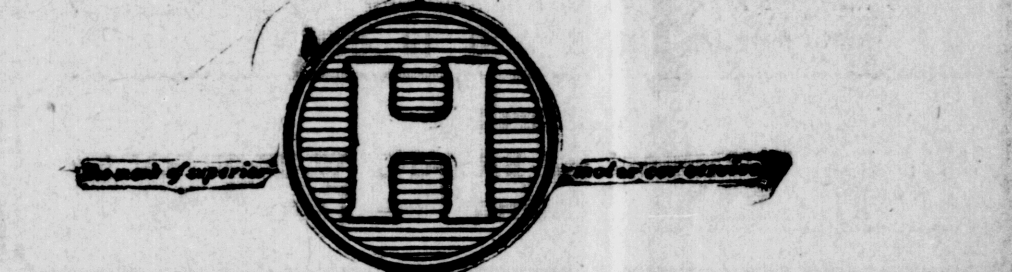

"There are injustices galore about the food distribution in Berlin. That is why they have had food riots in front of the Reichstag and in front of butcher shops. (The next article will tell of the injustices in the distribution of food in Germany which give the rich man the best of it.)

Notice of Improvement Resolution.

To Whom It May Concern:

Rushville, Ind., June 22, 1916.
Notice is hereby given by the common council of the city of Rushville, Indiana, that it is desired and deemed necessary to make the following described public improvements in the city of Rushville, Indiana, as authorized by Improvement Resolution No. 52 adopted by said common council on the 20th day of June 1916.

The improvement of both sides of Maple street from Eighth street to Tenth street by grading, graveling and constructing cement curb and gutter.

All work done in the making of the said described public improvements shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions of said improvement resolution and the detailed drawings, plans, profiles and specifications which are on file and may be seen in the office of the city clerk of said city of Rushville.

The common council of said city has fixed Tuesday, the 18th day of July, 1916, as a date upon which remonstrances may be filed or heard by persons interested in or affected by said described public improvement and on said day at 7:30 o'clock p. m., said common council will meet in the council chamber in said city of Rushville for the purpose of hearing and considering any remonstrances which may have been filed, or which may be presented, and will hear all persons interested in or affected by said proposed improvements, and will decide whether the benefits that will accrue to the property, abutting and adjacent to the proposed improvements, and to said city, will be equal to or exceed the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, as estimated by the city civil engineer.

DEMONSTRATION OF TRACTORS ARRANGED

Farmers Will be Interested in Showing Which Will be Made Week
Before at State Fair.

AMUSEMENTS TO BE PROVIDED

(By United Press.)
Farmers of Indiana as well as business men in general are showing an unusual interest in the gigantic demonstrations of tractors to be
Aug. 28, just preceding the Indi-triotic conduct and magnanimity of Theodore Roosevelt, who proposes to march shoulder to shoulder with that great Republican leader, Charles E.

Hughes, in this campaign." Mr. Watson said, in concluding his speech.
The remark was greeted with enthusiastic applause from the men who assembled in the club gymnasium, and Watson was cheered for several minutes.

Preceding the speech by Watson, Harry S. New, the nominee for the long senatorial term, paid a high tribute to Watson.

"I can not consider any man in this campaign a friend of mine who is not a friend of my colleague,
James E. Watson," Mr. New said, whereupon the audience rose and cheered wildly.

The meeting was an organization affair, and was presided over by James W. Fesler, chairman of the Seventh District. Will H. Hays, Republican state chairman, spoke, and urged that every precinct committeeman get to work now and perfect his organization in order that all would be in good working condition by the time the fall campaign opens. New and Watson also urged the importance of complete organizations everywhere.

ana State Fair. At this exposition, which will be held on a 600 acre site, six miles west of the city, tractors valued at one-half million dollars, representing firms of $350,000,000 capital will give demonstrations showing the wonderful achievements possible in agriculture by the use of these machines. All the leading accessory firms of the country also will have displays at the exposition.

In addition to the demonstrations, amusements of the highest character will be provided for the visitors.
Sanitary features, complete telephone and telegraph facilities and many other conveniences will be provided on the grounds for the visitors. Everything will be absolutely free.

Thousands of farmers of Indiana and surrounding states already have signified their intentions to attend the demonstrations and preparations are being made to care for great crowds. The demonstrations will be highly instructive to farmers and are regarded as highly educational to persons interested in agriculture lines. Persons interested can get additional information by writing C. J.
Bullock of the Advance Rumely Co., of Indianapolis.

The demonstrations, which will be given under the direction of the Indianapolis Tractor Club will be one of the gala events of Indiana's centennial year.

FIRST WHEAT IS CUT TODAY

Binder is Started on Wilbur Brown's Farm Near Orange

The first wheat of the 1916 crop in Rush county was cut today. The binder was started this morning in a field on Wilbur Brown's farm near Orange. Dave Alter of Orange township will begin cutting his wheat tomorrow and several other farmers in that neighborhood are also planning to follow suit. It was stated today that prospects for a good wheat crop were better than a few weeks ago.

Social Calendar

Friday

Informal dance at the skating rink, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Auction Bridge Club, with Mrs. Herman Tompkins at 306 West Third street in the afternoon.

George Poston of south of the city entertained yesterday Richard Pugh, William Sparks and Havens Frazee.

Miss Frances Neutzenhelzer went to Shelbyville today to be the guest of Miss Ruth Rhodes for a few days and to attend the dance this evening.

"500" CLUB

The twelve members of the "500" Club were pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Walter Easley at her home in N. Perkins St. At the close of the card series, the hostess served a dainty salad course. Mrs. Charles Green will be hostess for the next meeting.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS

The two missionary societies of the United Presbyterian church held their meetings yesterday afternoon. The Women's Missionary society met with Mrs. Robert Innis in North Harrison street. The principal number on the program was the report of the presbytery held recently in Caledonia, given by Miss Mary Fisher. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Young Ladies Missionary society had their regular monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. May Lancaster. During the informal afternoon, the hostess served a dainty repast. Both meetings were well attended.

CONFER DEGREE

The members of the Rebecca order at Homer visited the Shelbyville order on Tuesday evening and conferred the degree upon four candidates. The work was followed by an elegant two course banquet served by the Shelbyville ladies. About twenty-five members of the Homer order made the trip to Shelbyville, going in machines. Rather indefinite plans were made for the Shelbyville ladies to visit the members of the Homer order at some time in the near future.

LAST MEETING OF YEAR

At the meeting of the Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church held at the home of Mrs. Ben Cox, yesterday it was decided to hold no more regular meetings until fall. A few matters of business were brought up during the business meeting, after which the hostesses served a refreshing luncheon to the guests. There were about twenty in attendance and the hostesses were Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Earl Albright, Mrs. Sam Finney, and Mrs. Will Abercrombie.

MISS KITCHENS' RECITAL

Worthy of highest praise was each number in the recital given by a part of the piano pupils of Miss Jessie Kitchen at the First Presbyterian church last evening. For the series of recitals, the church has been beautifully decorated. The platform is massed with ferns, intermingled with huge baskets of crimson ramblers. Resting on each radiator, were large baskets in which a profusion of pink roses were gracefully arranged. In this background, the charming young ladies appeared to give their part in the program. Each could be complimented for their technique, excellent selection, and rendition of the difficult numbers. B. F. Miller sang in his usual good voice, "In Native Worth" an aria from "The Creation" by Haydn. He was accompanied by Miss Kitchen. The young ladies appearing on the program were the Misses Helen Matlock, Helen Thomas Magdalen Arbuckle, Georgia Hunt, Brenda Kinsinger, Margaret Guffin,

The members of the D. T. Club are entertaining their husbands at a pitch-in supper this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank.

The Auction Bridge Club which meets regularly on Thursday, will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Herman Tompkins at her home in West Third street.

Mrs. Bennett's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church will meet this evening with Mrs. J. R. Carmichael at her home in North Main street. All the members are requested to be present. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock.

HOUSE-GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinkle of Fifth and Harrison streets had as guests yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hood and daughter, Edna, of Indianapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Putnam Mills and children, Eva and Francis, of Alma Michigan were also their guests and will remain for a week's visit. Mr. Mills is a brother of Mrs. Hinkle.

WI-HUB DINNER

The members of the Wi-Hub Club had a pitch-in dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Green of East Fifth street last evening. An elegant dinner was served and social evening enjoyed by the members of the club who are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Carry, Mrs. Anna B. Cox, Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Abercrombie, "Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. McClanahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Innis. Plans for a picnic to be held the 4th of July were discussed.

SCHLICK-SCHANTZ

A wedding of interest in this city was solemnized yesterday morning at Columbus, when Edward Schantz, formerly of this city, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schantz was the bridegroom. Those from here attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Schantz and daughters Bertha and Henrietta, Mrs. Miller Whitton and the Rev. Father Lyons. Miss Henrietta Schantz acted as bridesmaid during the ceremony. The following account of the wedding is given in the Columbus Republican:

The marriage of Miss Emma Schlick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schlick, and Edward Schantz was solemnized Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Bartholomew's Catholic church, Rev. Father J. B. Delaney officiating, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The young couple was attended by Miss Henrietta Schantz, a sister of the bridegroom, and Albert Schad, an uncle of the bride. Miss May Kline was the ringbearer.

The bride wore a beautiful white taffeta and net gown and carried a bouquet of brides' roses. The long tulle veil was also caught with a chaplet of the roses. The bridesmaid was in a pretty yellow taffeta silk and her bouquet was yellow roses.

Following the ceremony at the church the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schlick on California street where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served to forty relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schantz left Wednesday evening for a wedding trip, which will include Cincinnati, O., Indianapolis and different places in Indiana and will be at home to their friends after July 5 at the handsomely furnished home on Union street at the corner of Twelfth street.

Mr. Schantz is a member of the firm of Stuckey & Schantz, cement contractors.

WITH MRS. FRAZEE

The pleasure connected with the meetings of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club was continued yesterday afternoon when the eight members of the club were the guests of Mrs. Charles Frazee at her home in North Main street. A very delicious and refreshing luncheon was served after the ladies had enjoyed several rounds of Bridge.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Sarah Guffin entertained at dinner yesterday Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh, Mrs. Will McVay of Richmond, Mrs. Maggie Hoffman of Toledo, and Will Mitchell of Butte, Mont. A delicious dinner was served. Today at dinner Mrs. Willard Brown entertained with a prettily appointed dinner, Mrs. Ridenbaugh, Mrs. Guffin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dill, and Will Mitchell.

PLAN BAZAAR

At the meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church held with Mrs. S. G. Huntington yesterday afternoon, it was decided to hold a bazaar in November and to work toward that end. It was also announced that $75 of the $500, which the society pledged toward the new church, has already been raised. A good attendance of about 18 members was present.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Smith gave a prettily appointed dinner party at high noon today at their home at 728 North Perkins street. The guests included Mrs. E. H. Enners of Indianapolis, the mother of Mrs. Smith who is her houseguest, Mrs. H. Bloom of Indianapolis, Mrs. Walter Frazee of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Mitchell of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Ella Personette of Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Will McMillin of Gings.

DEMME-BOEHM

Miss Alta Demmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Demmer west of the city, and Paul Boehm of Indianapolis were quietly married this morning at about ten o'clock by the Rev. C. M. Yocum at the Christian church parsonage. Mr. Boehm has been employed here for the past few months as circulation manager for the Indianapolis News. The wedding comes as a great surprise to the many friends of the bride and bridegroom. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boehm left for a short honeymoon through the East. They will make their permanent home in this city.

The bride, who is a beautiful young lady, was especially attractive this morning in a navy blue taffeta suit, wearing a large white picture hat.

GUEST DAY

The Fourth of July was anticipated in the decorations used at the home of Mrs. Fred Lightfoot of Raleigh yesterday when the members of the Sunshine Embroidery Club observed guest day. Flags draped gracefully in all of the rooms, and bunting twining about the columns in the hall gave the beautiful home a patriotic atmosphere. Summer flowers of all kinds graced the top of the piano; in the living room flags were twined about the chandeliers; flags were draped about the mantles; and the dining room was particularly attractive with flags, large and small, in every conceivable corner. Crimson ramblers, with their bright red shades corresponding with the red in the flags, formed a number of bouquets.

Punch was served throughout the afternoon with Mrs. Alva Poer and Mrs. Cora Aiken presiding over the punch bowl. The favors were given in an exceedingly clever way. A huge cannon cracker made of tissue paper hung above the guests in the hall way. As the guests drew their favors of tiny silken flags from the cannon cracker, a shower of confetti dropped down and a report sounded, which was afterwards found to be from a cracker outside.

One of the most delightful features of the entertainment was the informal musical program given by several of the guests. The numbers, each of which was well given follow:

Piano solo—Miss Thompson of Falmouth.
Piano and vocal solo—Mrs. Russell Baker.
Vocal solo—Miss Susan Glidder of Lewisville.
Violin solo—Miss Lucy Rutledge of Knightstown, accompanied by

Miss Dorothy Sipe of Carthage at the piano.

Piano solo—Miss June Lightfoot.
Piano solo—Miss Lucile Mellwaine.
Recitation—Miss Margaret Ball.
Recitation—Miss Vera Bowles.
Recitation—Miss Marcella Gilden.
Recitation—Miss Eloise Nipp.

Mrs. Kerr of Connersville won the honors in the clever musical contest, the names of popular airs to be guessed from a romance of two lovers before "Robin Adair" leaves for war. As the guests entered the dining room, they were asked to identify the members of the Sunshine Embroidery Club from their baby pictures which hung about the room.

While in the dining room, the ladies were served with an elaborate two course luncheon.

The affair was a success from start to finish. The committees, to which great credit is due for the charming afternoon afforded the guests, were composed of program committee, Mrs. Cahmbers, Mrs. Smullen, and Mrs. Bell; refreshment committee, Mrs. Poer, Mrs. Smullen, and Mrs. Aiken; decorating committee, Mrs. Hollowell, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Lightfoot.

Nineteen out of the twenty members of the club were present from Raleigh and the vicinity. Each of them invited one guest and the guests included ladies from Connersville, Falmouth, Mays, Lewisville, Rushville, and Raleigh. They were: honorary members, Mrs. Hall Hopper of Dunreith and Mrs. Charles N. Sweet of this city, who were charter members of the club; Mrs. Heineman, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Broadus and Miss Broadus of Connersville; Mrs. Helms, Mrs. Pottef, Miss Mellwaine, Mrs. Glidden, daughter Susan, of Lewisville; Mrs. Lucy Rutledge of Knightstown; Mrs. Sipe and daughter, Dorothy of Carthage; Mrs. Homer Nash and Mrs. Al Sharp of this city; Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Will Hall, Mrs. Ralph Miles, Mrs. Smullen, Mrs. Clarence Rich, and Mrs. William Matthew of Raleigh.

DISPUTE HOLDS UP EXECUTION

Condemned Man Says He Will Never Hang as he Has Been Re-
rieved Five Times.

Sheriff and Governor Get Into Row
and as Result Scott Continues to Live.

(By United Press.)

Murphysboro, Ill., June 29.—Elston Scott, Illinois' most reprovied murderer, sits calmly in his cell in the county jail here, confident he never will hang for the murder of his sister-in-law at Carbondale last summer.

Scott was sentenced to hang Octo-ber 16th last but has been reprovied five times by Governor Dunne. His latest reprieve gives him life until July 14.

The many reprieves grow out of a dispute between Governor Dunne and Sheriff White of Jackson county. Shortly before the date set for Scott's hanging here Joe Deberry, another negro murderer expiated his crime on the gallows.

Large posters announcing that moving pictures of the hanging would be shown at a local moving picture theatre reached Governor Dunne, shortly before the date Scott was scheduled to hang, wired Sheriff White of this county to send him the specific number of persons who would witness the execution.

Sheriff White replied by stating he would comply with the law which, in this state, allows him a sufficient number of deputies to prevent trouble.

The answer did not satisfy Governor Dunne and he reprovied Scott. The same routine has been gone through five times. Now Scott insists he will never hang.

Governor Dunne insists he never will commute Scott's sentence to life, as the crime was "to revolting to be expiated by anything but death."

Governor Dunne is especially antagonistic to capital punishment and might see Scott still alive when his term expires next March.

GOV. WILLIS ON PROGRAM.

(By United Press.)

Lebanon, O., June 29.—Governor Frank B. Willis is among the speakers slated for addresses today celebrating the 100th birthday of Alfred Holbrook, founder of the National Normal university here in 1865, America's first school of this kind.

Others who will speak are Prof. John W. Withers, St. Louis; O. P. Kinsey, President of Valparaiso university; and Congressman S. D. Fess, of Antioch, Ohio.

SPEAKS AT BLOOMINGTON.

Bloomington, Ind., June 29.—Professor Franklin T. Baker of Columbia University, New York City, spoke at the campus amphitheater at Indiana University this afternoon on "Shakespeare in the Schools." Baker's address was a part of Shakespeare week which is being observed by the university this week.

WILL MARK THE CAMPAIGN START

Conference of Republican Leaders
Will be Held in Indianapolis
Tomorrow

NO LET-UP 'TIL ELECTION

Session Will be Confined to Republican Organization and the Nominees

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—The conference of Republican leaders from every county in the state that will be held at Republican state headquarters in the Hotel Severin at noon Friday, will mark the formal opening of the 1916 campaign in Indiana. From the close of that conference until the polls close on November 7th, according to State Chairman Will H. Hays, who called the conference, there will not be a moment's let-up and the on-rushing Republican battle array will increase its clip with every passing moment. Indiana is to be the political battlefield of the nation this year and the Republicans intend to set the pace as they have since the early months of 1914.

The coming conference will be confined to county chairmen, district chairmen, congressional nominees and candidates on the state ticket.

"Serious matters of organization and confidential plans of the campaign will be discussed," was all Chairman Hays would say regarding the coming conference.

It is understood that the Republicans will lay particular stress on organization work during July and August. However, there will be considerable speaking during that time as the demand for speakers is pouring into state headquarters so insistently that it will be necessary to open the speakers bureau much earlier than usual this year. Jesse E. Eschbach, of Warsaw, who will be manager of this department again this year, will attend the coming conference. He expects to get down to work at state headquarters about the middle of the coming week.

"Republican activity begins in earnest with this conference," said L. W. Henley, secretary of the Republican state committee. "The enthusiasm that exists over the national ticket is highly encouraging. Reports indicate that the party is again reunited and that untold hundreds of disgusted Democrats have already been attracted to the party's standard. The demand for speakers is increasing. Already a number of county and district rallies have been scheduled for the summer months, but generally speaking Republican interest during the coming two months will center in organization work. Indiana Republicans intend to be prepared properly."

EDITORS HOLD OUTING.

Angola, June 29.—Twelfth district republican editors held an outing at Crooked Lake near here today. State Chairman Will H. Hays and Harry S. New, nominee for United States senator, attended the meeting.

Continuing he said:

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World are doing their part in an unselfish patriotic way to help improve and solve our many merchandising problems, which are related so vitally to the business strength and health of our nation.

But I question whether you gentlemen realize the great power you possess for improving conditions in our industrial life. While you have accomplished many things your most important work is before you.

DENIES HE MADE REMARK ABOUT HUGHES' BEARD

Professor James O. Griffin, reputed to have told nominee he had no more beard than hen egg when Hughes appeared at Delhi, N. Y. academy to teach, says it is false.

The following from the Stanford Palo Alto News, published at Palo Alto, Cal., for the community centering about Palo Alto and Stanford University, concerns the famous anecdote which has been repeated much of late as the reason for Hughes hiding behind a beard since he was nineteen years of age. The paper was received by a Rushville man, who has relatives at Palo Alto:

One of the classic anecdotes about Charles Evans Hughes is that which ascribes the genesis of his beard to the chiding remark of the principal of an academy in Delhi, N. Y., where young Hughes taught just after graduating from college, that young Hughes had "no more beard than an egg." The principal, according to the story, was afraid that the youthful appearing teacher would not be able to maintain discipline among the boys.

Professor James O. Griffin, head of the German department at Stanford, is the academy principal referred to, but he never made the remark. He did not himself at that time have any beard, he explains, and he did not think of criticizing the young teacher on that score. But he was indeed afraid that Mr. Hughes with his fresh college diploma from Brown, and his fresh young face would have difficulty in maintaining the ascendancy over the boys who were to be placed under his charge in the dormitory.

This was in the fall of 1881, and the school was the Delaware Academy at Delhi, N. Y. A fine, big giant of a young fellow had failed as a teacher right at the beginning of the term, and had left—left the academy, as a matter of the kind of fact that is stranger than fiction, because he was homesick. Professor Griffin had heard of Hughes who had graduated from Brown that spring with a brilliant scholarship record at the age of 19, and he telegraphed to him. This was on Friday and on Monday Mr. Hughes presented himself at the academy.

The principal of the academy was not very favorably impressed with the boy's appearance; he did not look as if he would be capable of keeping the floor under his charge in the boys' dormitory in check. So Professor Griffin played safe. "Now, Mr. Hughes," he said, "you don't know me and I don't know you. I suggest that we try each other out for a month. If at the end of that time you don't care to stay, why you feel perfectly free to go, and if it seems best to me I shall be able to tell you so without the difficulty that might come about if we did not have such an understanding." Young Hughes quietly agreed, "And," says Professor Griffin, telling about the incident now, "after the first day, there was never any doubt in my mind, and I never thought of it again but at the end of the month Mr. Hughes came to me. 'Well, Professor Griffin,' he said, 'the month is up; do you want me to stay?' 'Yes, Mr. Hughes,' I replied, 'as long as I teach.'

"But young Hughes did not make a deeply favorable impression on first acquaintance in those days; he was young and quiet and retiring. I remember one evening the faculty of our academy—there were nine on it—were the guests at another academy at dinner. After the dinner the principal of that academy said to me, 'I like the teachers you have, Griffin, except this youngster, Hughes. I can't see why you have him.' 'That's because you don't know him,' I replied. 'He has more brains than all your faculty and all mine put together.'

"Mr. Hughes came to the academy," Professor Griffin explained, "to teach Greek and higher mathematics, but he taught French also after he came. But his most wonderful work was in teaching the boys in public speaking. In those days, of course, great attention was given to oratory in such schools as this. Mr. Hughes in these classes had the power to arouse tremendous enthusiasm for the work on the part of boys. There was no drudgery they wouldn't undergo to excel in that work for him. They were carried away with the young teacher's power. And in this work he showed the marvellous memory that he had; he always learned each boy's oration before the boy himself had learned it, and could prompt without the speech in his hand.

A story illustrating his ability as a speaker and his memory is one that Professor Griffin tells of a dinner in honor of the poet Burns in a Scotch community which the members of the academy faculty attended. Hughes was called on to make a speech, although he had not expected to be. The other speakers had come with their remarks all ready, but Hughes made by far the best talk of the evening, quoting extensively from Burns's writings in the course of it, and made a great hit with the Scotchmen.

While he was teaching at Delaware Academy Hughes was studying law with Judge Gleason, the father of Lafayette Gleason, a student in the academy at the time and now a leading figure in New York state Republican politics, who was conspicuous in the recent activities at Chicago that led to the nomination of Hughes.

At that time, according to Professor Griffin, the ambition of the young Hughes was to become a first-class lawyer, and United States senator from New York. He did not, apparently think of the presidency of the United States, nor of the governorship of his state, nor a place on the Supreme Court bench. From the academy Hughes went to Columbia, from which he graduated and became a full-fledged lawyer in 1184. His success was pronounced. He was a tremendous worker, and his reputation as a painstaking and thoroughly grounded counsellor grew rapidly after his first small cases. He was taken into the office with Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina and Walter Carter in New York. The latter was head of the firm and the father of the girl whom Hughes married.

Professor Griffin and Mr. Hughes have been close and strong friends ever since the days of their academy association, and he and Mrs. Griffin are ardent admirers of Mrs. Hughes whom they also know in an intimate friendship.

Mrs. Hughes became alarmed for fear that Hughes with his growing law practice, which was taxing all his time and strength, would break down, and she wished that he could get a position as a professor of law in a university. In 1891, Hughes had a case in Utica, N. Y., and visited the Griffins at Ithaca, Professor Griffin then being on the faculty at Cornell, and told them of Mrs. Hughes' wish that he might "settle down" for a while as a college professor. Just before that the eminent Professor Francis Burdick had left Cornell to go to Columbia, and the result was that his place was offered to Hughes and accepted.

Incidentally, this case at Utica was interesting as showing something of the Hughes character. Hughes told the Griffins that he was opposed to an extremely shrewd veteran of the bar in the litigation and it was a very difficult case. "I'm going to win the case," he said, "but to do it I shall have to have a portion of the civil-code of the state eliminated—as unconstitutional." Which is exactly what he did do.

Hughes was a professor at Cornell for two years and a special lecturer there for several years after that.

The Maxwell is an Automobile of Remarkable Consistency

You want a motor car that will serve you consistently.

You want to know that your car can be relied upon day in and day out.

You want high mileage per gallon of gasoline and freedom from repairs and readjustments.

And you want these things, not occasionally, but continuously—day after day.

On these qualities the Maxwell has made good. It has proved its worth.

When the Maxwell stock touring car set the World's Motor Non-Stop Mileage Record a short time ago, it travelled for 44 consecutive days and nights, and its performance was consistent.

It went about 500 miles each and every day.

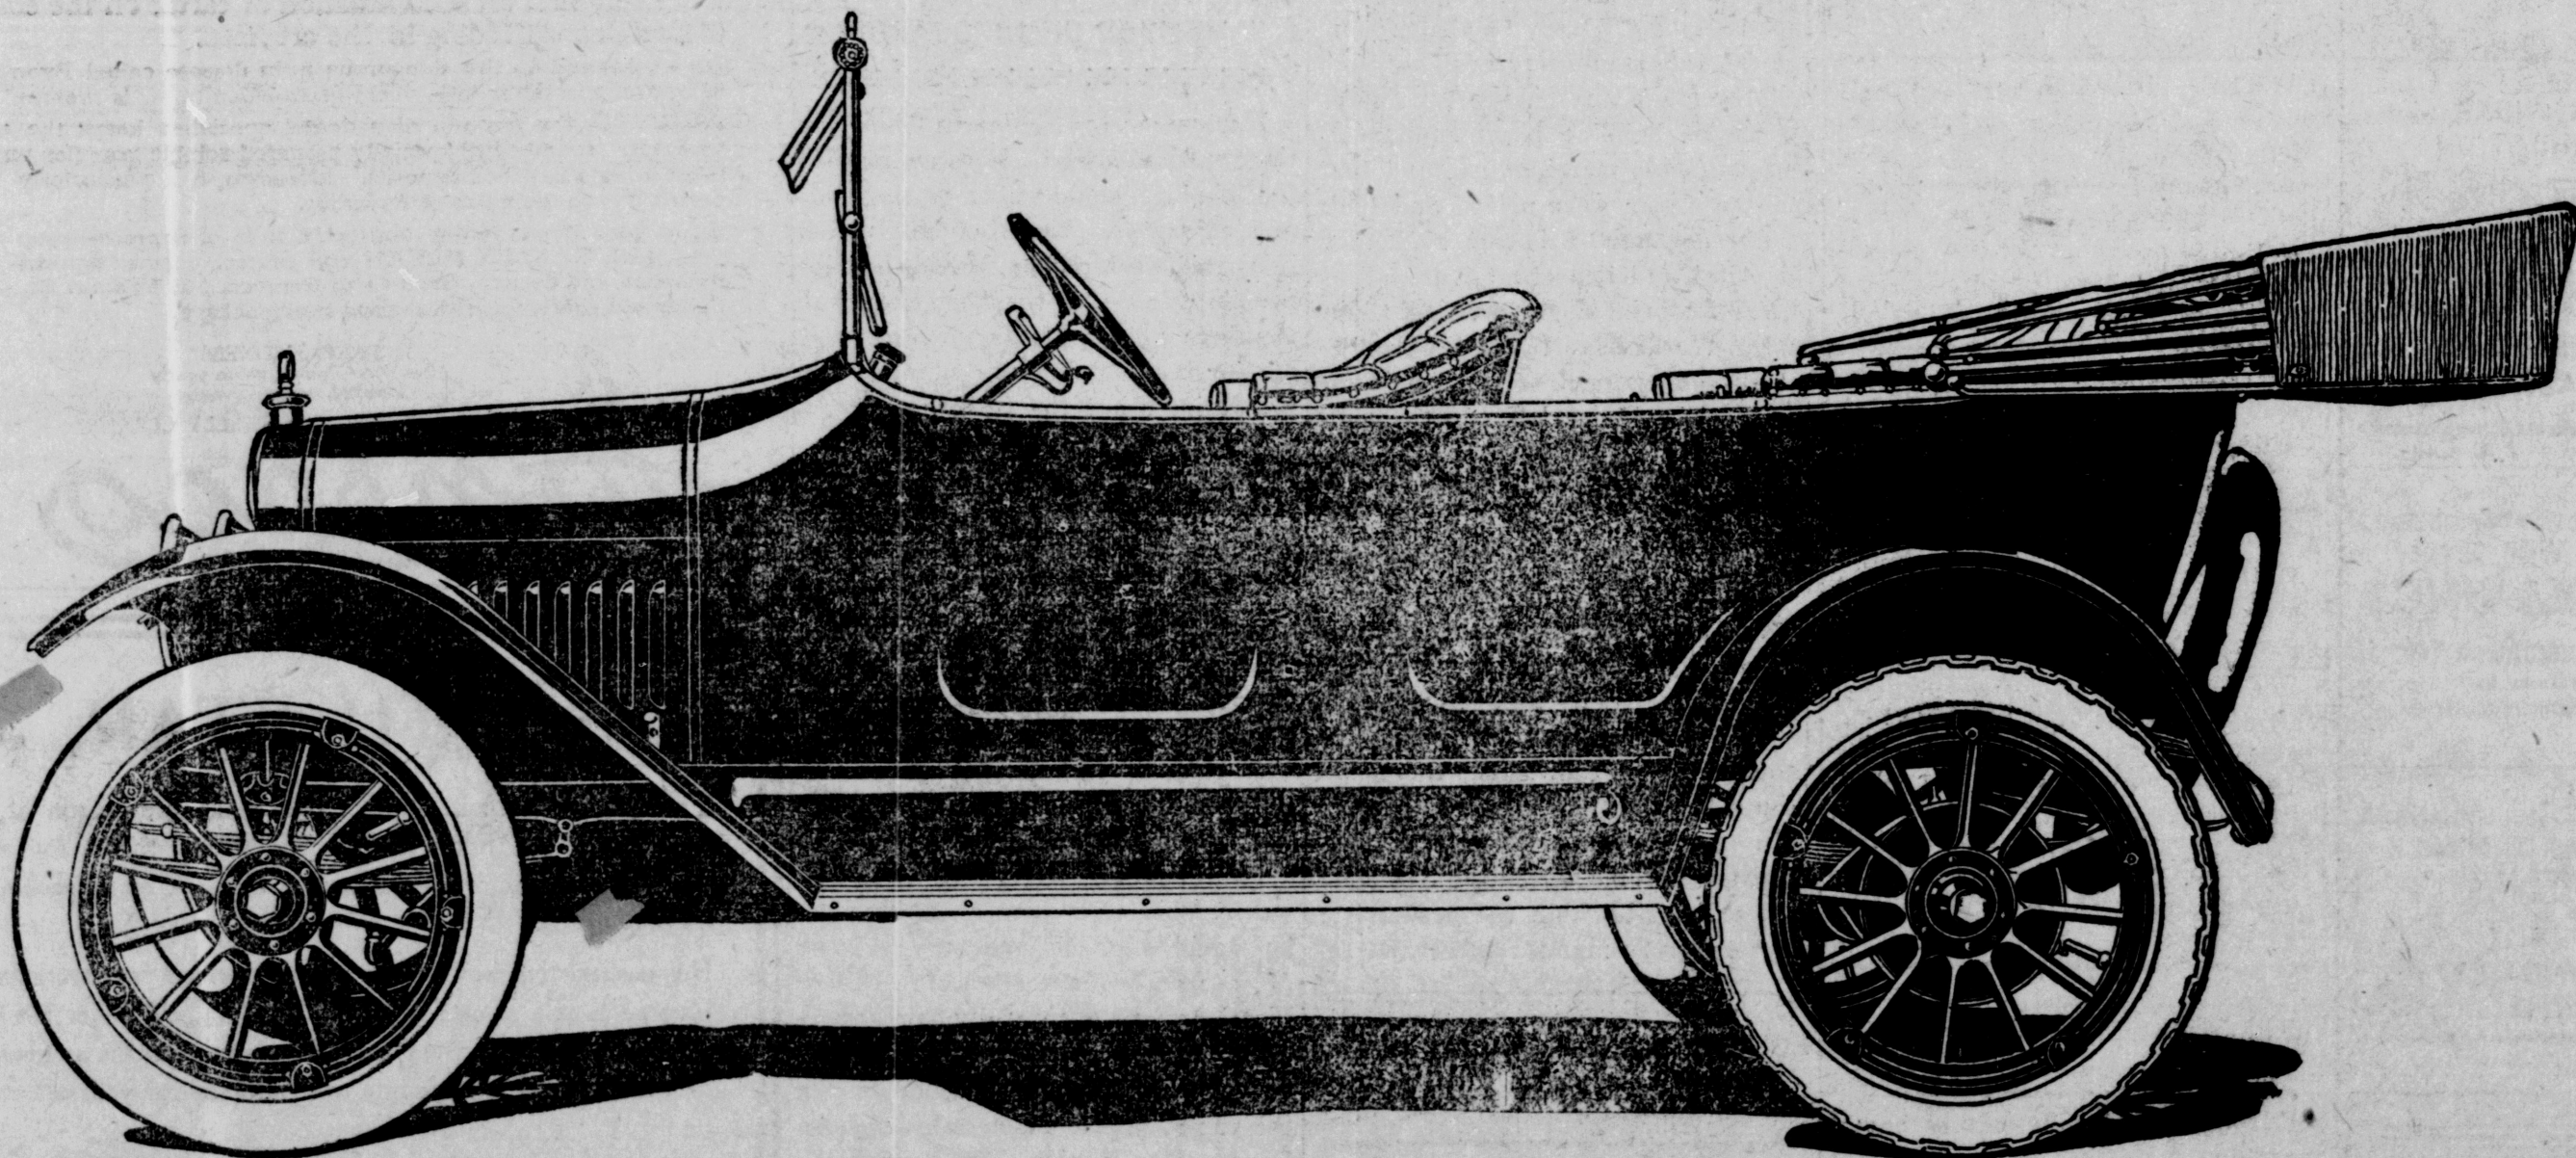

It went within a small fraction of 22 miles to every gallon of gasoline.

It went the whole distance of 22,000 miles—probably further than you would travel in two years—without any repairs or readjustments.

Every one of eight tires (two sets) went just about 9,800 miles and the others finished in good shape.

For consistency and reliability this record far excels anything we ever heard of.

A word of warning—it is not wise to wait too long. The demand for Maxwells is growing so that in a very short time the factory output, tremendous as it is now, will not be able to meet the demand. If you wait too long, you might be forced to content yourself with some other make of car which, first and last, will cost you much more than the Maxwell.

Opportunity for a Maxwell Dealer is open in this vicinity. Our proposition has upany, Inc., Detroit, Mich.

"And they brought him home"

These grey hairs came when they brought Will home, after the fire. Afterward, it was all I could do to pull myself together and think of some way to keep the children and not break up the home. Will was a good husband and it was not his fault we couldn't save much money. He was more than good—he was thoughtful, too. I found, then, that he'd taken out the AETNA TEN DOLLAR COMBINATION POLICY and that I was to have over $3000 for it. Just think!—it cost him only $10 a year to by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

PREPAREDNESS IS BIG ISSUE

lar time the co-operation of a strong national organization with energy and good judgment, which has the entire confidence of the Government, and of the banking and business world.

From the early days when the Town Crier and the signboard were the principal publicity agents employed, to the modern newspapers, poster and illustrated magazine with its pleasing presentation of current commodities, advertising has traveled a long way. Its evolution since the invention of printing has been rapid, and the field of advertising has expanded until it includes today widely varying lines of activity, as shown by the many departmental organizations included in your larger unit, the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

The work of your association deals with a part of the field of business which is most important—the marketing of commodities. Selling and advertising are bound up together. To find the need and to supply it are two sides of the same shield. The usefulness of a manufacturer to the community is greatly extended through advertising. Merchandising has passed far beyond the confines of the old time market place. It now extends over whole continents—over the entire world, and it is advertising which makes possible national merchandising.

Service to the community must be the ultimate test by which all advertising is judged. For that reason it is very gratifying to find your association taking a strong stand against fraudulent and misleading advertising. Its adoption of "truth" as its world motto is an important step in insuring the public and the advertising against deterioration of the service which the ad-man supplies. It means a substantial improvement in the reliability of publicity methods. It means a strengthening of business confidence in all advertising.

Every advertiser is interested in successful manufacturing, for only the successful manufacturer remains in business, to sell his goods, and to advertise. Whatever promotes manufacturing success, therefore, business success in general, directly interests the advertising man.

Whatever makes for strong and substantial protection makes for progress in the field of marketing through publicity. For this reason you are vitally concerned with conditions in the business world as a whole.

A preliminary study of industry generally, made by the Federal Trade Commission, has revealed the fact that only a very small percentage of the manufacturers of the country make any charge for depreciation of building plant equipment, or reasonable merchandise, and that their products were priced and their profits determined before reckoning this vital and important item.

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have taken keen interest in the welfare of the small retailer. The Federal Trade Commission has found them ready and willing to co-operate with us in an endeavor to solve the problem of efficient merchandising.

The distributary of our food products, particularly by the retailer, has an important bearing on the high cost of living and any effort that is put forth to work out this problem in an economic way will benefit the people as a whole.

In co-operation with your organization, the Federal Trade Commission will mail within the next thirty days to every manufacturer and retail merchant in the United States a booklet outlining the correct way of keeping his accounts. If the suggestions of the Commission are followed the manufacturer and retailer will know what it costs him to manufacture and sell his goods.

One of the difficulties with our manufacturers and merchants today is that they may be manufacturing or selling, say, six different products and making a profit on three of them, but on the other three losing money. Every article sold should share its percentage of overhead, executive, accounting and selling expenses. It is the only safe way to conduct a business. To reduce your overhead per unit of sales by handling a large volume of goods, on a part of which you are losing money, is not good business practice.

This method of doing business causes competitors to fail; particularly small merchants and manufacturers, who have to compete with those who are making a substantial percentage of profit on part of their line and are competing unfairly with another line by cutting and demoralizing prices.

Each article should bear its proportionate share of expense and yield a reasonable profit. The enormous financial death rate of retail merchants shows the necessity for something helpful to this large class of our business men. Competition in merchandising is becoming more and more keen. Practically no retailer can remain in business for a long period if his business is not conducted efficiently.

It is an encouraging sign of the times that an organization like yours is devoting time, energy and money to assist the small merchant to improve his bookkeeping methods. This is a great piece of constructive work that will reflect credit on each and every member of your associated clubs.

Government has complained about business. Business men have complained of the attitude of the Government toward business. Whatever justification there may have been in the past for such complaints, today there is a better understanding between government and business. Since better business methods usually begin with better methods of cost accounting, scientific cost keeping becomes in a very definite sense the basis of our prosperity. The Government, through the Federal Trade Commission, by recommending the subject of costs to the business men of the country at this time, and offering to aid in the actual development of proper cost systems, is endeavoring to do a constructive piece of work which is of greatest importance. The problems of credit and finance, of foreign trade, unfair methods of competition, and of labor and capital,—all will begin to solve themselves once the subject of costs receives on every hand the attention it rightfully deserves.

GOVERNOR RALSTON IS MEMBER OF JR. GUARDS.

Hartsville, Ind., June 29.—Will Governor Samuel R. Ralston put on the khaki, shoulder his Springfield, and entrain for the Mexican border if war is declared on Mexico? The possibility is remote, of course, but members of the Hartsville company of the Indiana Junior guards are wondering what the Governor would do in case their company volunteers for service and is accepted.

Governor Ralston is an honorary member of the Hartsville company which was formed by Paul L. Morris, a Culver Military Academy cadet son of a Hartsville physician. Most of members of the company are too young for military service except with consent of their parents and there is little likelihood that the consent will be forthcoming.

Major Morrison, however, today was emphatic in his assertion that he would offer his company in case of war and volunteers are called. Morrison has a carefully preserved letter from Governor Ralston accepting honorary membership in the Guards which he claims will hold the Governor to service. Morrison pointed out the following paragraph from the latter, which was written last April.

When the certificate of honorary membership reached me I was greatly enthused and felt that I was already to enter upon a fifty mile hike in the mountains of Mexico in pursuit of Villa. I think it increased the warmth of my Americanism fifty per cent.

Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. SENRECO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

MANY ATTEND CONFERENCE

School Superintendent and Supervisors Gather in Lafayette.

(By United Press.)

Lafayette, June 29.—If twenty-one teachers direct the activities of 445 boys and girls so effectively that the children add $26,000 to the productive wealth of the state during the summer, why should it not be wise to increase the number of these supervisory teachers.

That school superintendents and school officials are answering this question in the affirmative was shown today when a conference for teachers employed as supervisors in home work in agriculture convened at Purdue University. The number of teachers attending the two day conference is greater than ever before. A number of school superintendents, school trustees and farmers' institute workers are attending the conference.

SOME ACTION IS EXPECTED

Progressive Committee to Determine Status of Party.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, June 29.—What will be the status of the Progressive party in Indiana in the coming campaign? This was the question that confronted the Progressive state committee when it met here today.

Deserted by their national leader, Col. Roosevelt, and abandonment by their state chieftain, Ex-senator Albert J. Beveridge, many of those who broke off from the old parties in 1912 advocated going "back home." Others asserted that both of the old parties another lesson and proposed putting state ticket in the field.

The state committee was to hear from National Committeeman William H. Dye, a report on the Chicago conference and then vote whether the Progressive party in Indiana should go into history or become a factor in the campaign.

NEW TERRITORY.

Bluffton, June 29.—The Purdue University poultry train invaded new territory in its deathly raid on Indiana roosters when it stopped here today. Wells County farmers were given lessons in methods of increasing and bettering the egg crop through the selling of the roosters, and in methods of handling eggs for market.

CENTENNIAL ACTIVITY IS INCREASING IN THE STATE

Jackson county is planning ambitiously for its celebration to be held at Seymour, September 11-16. Miss Kate Andrews, principal of the Shields High School, is writing the pageant story.

Oakland City, the home of the historian Col. W. M. Cockrum, author of "A Pioneer History of Indiana" and "The Underground Railway" put on a pageant June 14-15, on the Oakland City College Campus, under the direction of Grover W. Sims. Incidents described in Col. Cockrum's books were presented in the pageant.

E. P. Hawkins, Fayette County's energetic chairman, has secured the Pathe moving picture people to film the celebration scenes at Connersville, July 3, 4, and 5. This is Centennial spot light for certain.

Grant County, under the leadership of Mayor James O. Batchelor of Marion, is planning for a bona fide county pageant and celebration August 2-3. Boy scouts will be sent with trumpets throughout the towns and countryside of Grant, to herald the celebration.

Marshall county is preparing to erect grand stands to accommodate five thousand people at the pageant which is to be given on August 9 at Plymouth.

City, July 20-22, at Troy, August 10, and Cannellton, September 3-9, Perry County may be said to be surging with Centennial enthusiasm.

Garrett has a surplus in the treasury after its Centennial celebration, part of which will be used to take the school children to the DeKalk County celebration at Auburn, October 4-6.

Several Centennial pageants and celebrations are scheduled for July 4; Fayette County at Connersville, July 3-5 pageant on the 5th; Johnson County at Franklin a pageant; Spencer County at Rockport July 3-4, pageant on the 4th, written by Mrs. Kate Milner Rabb of Indianapolis; Winona Assembly, Kosciusko County, week of July 3-8; Swayzee in Grant County, procession pageant illustrating transportation, settlement and development.

F. A. Miller, chairman of St. Joseph County, admits that the celebration at South Bend, October 3-5 will eclipse all comers. South Bend people have been taking the measure of their friendly rivals and know what they have to do. A big feature planned is the singing by a chorus of six thousand voices of the new Centennial hymn, written for the occasion by pageant Master, Henry B. Roney of Chicago.

O. J. Neighbours, Chairman of Wabash County, reports that a feature of their celebration, September 3-6, will be the formal visiting on one day of the points of historic interest in the county, which will be appropriately marked and at some of which public exercises will be held.

Michigan City is planning for a big celebration some time in August in which nearly one hundred organizations are said to be represented. The Indiana State Prison is considering the presentation of a pageant during the week of celebration.

The Earlham College Quaker pageant netted a profit of between four and five hundred dollars which will probably be turned over to the new gymnasium fund.

Floyd County's date of celebration at New Albany has been changed from September 14 to 21, owing to the fact that the former date has been fixed upon as Indiana day at the Kentucky State Fair.

It is rumored that De Pauw University and Putnam County have started another get together movement looking toward a Centennial pageant to be given this fall. Official confirmation is eagerly awaited.

Clay county has decided upon a pageant as the form of celebration, to be given at Brazil, September 29 and 30.

The Sisters of St. Benedict of the Convent of the Immaculate Conception at Ferdinand conducted a Centennial week June 11-18 in connection with the closing exercises of the Academy.

The Kosciusko county celebration takes place at Warsaw, June 29—July 2. The first day will be devoted to a Home Coming, and Warsaw high school reunion, followed on succeeding days by reunions of old students of the public schools in general. An excellent historical exhibit has been arranged, and a Centennial parade for Saturday. Sunday will be Home coming day in the churches. Miss Harriet Frazer is County Chairman.

The Cornelia Cole Fairbanks Chapter, D. A. R. publicly unveiled on June 21, the marker which is had erected at the corner of Washington St. and Southeastern Avenue, Indianapolis, marking the crossing of the old National and Michigan Roads.

It is a case of "on again" with the Tippecanoe County Celebration. At a citizens' mass meeting held at Lafayette, June 6, the Centennial idea was resuscitated and Judge H.

H. Vinton named to lead in plans of observance.

Teachers and pupils of school No. 45, recently unveiled a stone placed in honor of Camp Morton at Alabama and Washington streets near what was probably the southern entrance to the historic camp of Indiana's Civil War heroes.

It will be open season for governors at the Boone County celebration Sept. 14-16, at Lebanon. Of course, Governor Ralston will be "at home" to all on that occasion and in addition Governor Pleasant of Louisiana and Governor Bilbo of Mississippi will participate. There's a reason. A live newspaper man in the person of Ben McKay is guiding Boone's Centennial activities.

FIRST UNITED STATES MILITIA CROSSES MEXICAN BORDER TODAY

Reports of Large Forces of Carranza Forces Concentrating Near Guzman Heard

NEW MEXICO GUARDSMEN GO

Attempt to Break Line of Communication is Feared—Cavalry Remounts Returned

ILLINOIS REGIMENT GOES

Two Others From Same State Will Leave Tonight For Border—Indiana Batteries Ready

(By United Press.)

Columbus, N. M., June 29.—Reports that large Carranzista forces were concentrating at Guzman in a position to cut the American communication lines, resulted in several motor truck loads of New Mexico militia being sent into Mexico to bring back cavalry horses which were approaching Guzman under a small guard.

The use of the New Mexico national guardsmen to escort the cavalry horses back out of possible danger was the first militiamen have crossed the border into Mexico.

The report and movement of troops from the Columbus base camp caused the greatest excitement today. Rumors that the field telegraph lines south had been cut proved unfounded.

An aeroplane at General Pershing's headquarters is expected to make a reconnaissance around Guzman to investigate the reports of trouble.

The cavalry remounts left yesterday and went into camp for the night about seven miles south of the border where they were overtaken and turned back. Guzman is only twenty miles from the present American communication lines.

ORDER RELEASING TROOPERS CONFIRMED

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 29.—Official confirmation of General Carranza's order to release American prisoners at Chihuahua City reached the war department today. Consul Rodgers wired the prisoners had been released and it is understood at the state department the full text of Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note threatening "grave consequences" will arrive today.

Danger of immediate hostilities between the United States and Mex-

MEDIATION OFFER NOW IS USELESS

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 29.—Any offer of Pan-American mediation just now would be useless in view of the absence of knowledge of Carranza's attitude towards the United States, Bolivian Minister Calderon was informed by Secretary Lansing today.

Lansing, however, did not throw cold water on a possible future mediation offer and Calderon indicated he would probably make an offer formally after official word comes from Carranza.

ico has been averted. With the release by General Carranza of the American prisoners, a big step has been taken in avoiding the "grave consequences." There is yet much to be done, however.

How fully the Mexican crisis has been modified will not be known until the text of Carranza's reply to President Wilson's two recent notes reach Washington. The president wished to know what the first chief's attitude is to be in the future, his explanation of the Carrizal fight and whether or not his future intentions embody co-operation with the American forces in Mexico or opposition to their work.

FIRST ILLINOIS LEAVES FOR THE BORDER TODAY

Chicago, June 29.—The First Illinois infantry which entrained at Springfield last night was the only militia unit in the central department of the army enroute to the border early this afternoon, reports to the department showed.

Two other Illinois regiments are to leave late today or tonight. Wisconsin is about ready to entrain.

The Second Kansas Infantry reported its readiness to leave for the border tomorrow. The First Kansas will go July 2 and the battery signal corps July 3.

Two Indiana batteries are ready to leave for the border at any time, but the other Indiana troops will be held a few days.

CARRANZA SAYS U. S. NOTE IS NOT A REPLY

Mexico City, June 29.—General Carranza's reply to the American note threatening "grave consequences" if the American forces are attacked and reciting alleged Mexican outrages, will allege that several of President Wilson's statements are based on unauthenticated information, it was learned here today. The reply itself has not been completed. But General Carranza himself indicated something of its character in an address to a group of students last night.

"The American note, purporting to be an answer to the Mexican note, is in reality not an answer at all, but a series of charges," he said. "A reply is being prepared, rectifying these statements. The American note and the reply will be given to the public here as soon as possible."

NEW BATTERY AND CAVALRY TO BE ADDED

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—Fort Wayne will soon be represented by a battery of artillery and a troop of cavalry, according to an unofficial announcement made at Camp Ralston today.

Captain Harry Clark and Lieutenant Henry C. Morarity, both of Fort Wayne, visited the camp today and called at the office of Adjutant General Bridges. Captain Clark, who commanded Battery B, formerly of Fort Wayne, today said he has 176 enlisted men waiting for orders to be received at Fort Wayne for the artillery company to be ordered to Camp Ralston. Lieutenant Morarity reported to the adjutant general that he has 91 men under enlistment for a cavalry troop. The plans of the war department are said to include one cavalry troop from Indiana.

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—United States troopers held prisoners, who were released by General Carranza's orders last night, arrived at Juarez this afternoon.

Army officers today felt that while an actual clash has been averted, temporarily, the situation between the United States will continue to be strained until General Carranza definitely declares his attitude toward American troops in Mexico.

Galveston, Texas, June 29.—One thousand and fifty American refugees arrived here today on the United States collier Dixie and the tank steamer Herbert G. Wylie. They reported they were smuggled out of Tampico, Mexico by the American consul and the commanders of naval vessels there.

PRICE RESIGNS AS POLICEMAN

Motorcycle Cop Leaves Force July 1, to Accept Place With Fire Extinguishing Co.

BASIL SEWARD APPOINTED

Policeman Orla Price has resigned from the local force, his resignation to take effect July 1. His place will be taken by Basil Seward, who is promoted from the fire department. Mr. Price has accepted a position as superintendent of construction of the General Fire Extinguishing Company of Cleveland and will go to Zanesville, Ohio, Saturday to take up his new work.

Mr. Price has been on the police force here since January 17. Basil Seward, who becomes a policeman, has been a member of the fire department since the paid department was organized. He also has done police duty and is well acquainted with the work. The fire committee has not made known the man who will take Seward's place on the fire department.

With the passing of Price Rushville will lose its motorcycle cop, unless the council sees fit to buy the machine and Policeman Price is not very anxious to sell.

SIXTY MILLION ADDED.

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 29.—Sixty million dollars was added to the house draft of the army bill by the senate military committee in a four hour session today. Due to the Mexican situation, it is expected that at least $40,000,000 more will be added before the bill is finally reported to the senate.

LATEST FIND IS COMPLICATED

Second Auto Harry Flodder Stole and Sold to George Davis Changes Hands Twice

OWNER TO BE REIMBURSED

Police of Many Cities are Anxious to Get at the Davis Gang—Charges at Anderson

Another car stolen by Harry Flodder and alleged to have been sold through Elmer Hite to George Davis of Clarksburg, self-confessed auto thief, was recovered yesterday afternoon in Greensburg. Davis in his confession told of two cars stolen by Flodder, in which Hite and another local boy were implicated. With the recovery of the car yesterday at Greensburg, both machines have been accounted for as the other one was found here yesterday on possession of Conrad Kney.

The car held by Mr. Kney was the property of Frank G. Camp, 40 Virginia Avenue, Indianapolis and the car recovered in Greensburg was the property of Edwin L. Craig, 738 East Drive Woodruff Place. The Greensburg case was a little more complicated than the others. Davis bought the car of the local men and in turn traded it to A. P. Powell, owner of a garage there. Powell then sold the stolen car to Win Shepherd and it was found in the possession of Shepherd by the officers yesterday. The officers were home earlier in the day and from here went to Clarksburg and Greensburg.

Powell stated that he would reimburse Shepherd and then try to get recourse from Davis as he believes the car he traded Davis is in Indianapolis. It is almost an endless chain and also very complicated. With the finding of this car in Greensburg the two cars alleged to have been taken by Flodder, which implicates the other local boy, have been accounted for.

It developed yesterday that some trouble was likely to result when the officers attempted to take the machine away from John Leakey of New Lisbon, Henry county. Mr. Hollensbe was not entirely satisfied that the car belonged to Mr. Leakey and did not take to the idea of losing $225 that he paid for the car. Some legal complications are expected. The officers hardly expect the owners of these stolen machines to give them up quietly.

Conrad Kney, a well known farmer of near Manilla who yesterday gave up his Ford, was here yesterday afternoon with a Shelbyville attorney. Kney paid George Davis $300 for the machine and did not like the idea of giving up the car without getting some of his money back.

Persons who have investigated George Davis' financial standing declare that he is not worth a penny. At first it was given out that he had an account of $3,000 in the Clarksburg bank, but it now develops that there is an overdraft against him so any hopes that the holders of stolen cars bought from Davis have of getting their money back appear to be smashed.

Because of the wide activity of the Davis gang the affair has been rather complicated and the matter has become confused to some. The gang will be prosecuted in Union county, although charges could be brought against them in 6 counties.

Yesterday charges were filed against George and Roy Davis in Anderson. They are charged with stealing a machine belonging to Roy Stottlemeyer. The Anderson officials want Davis in case something should happen and he should not be tried in Union county.

CASE GOES TO HIGHER COURT

Special Judge Blair Overrules Motion for New Trial in Potts-Churchill Case

QUESTIONS ARE DISCUSSED

Blair Also Hears Motion for New Trial in Case in Which Harry Hudson Was Awarded $1.

Judge Alonzo Blair of the Shelby circuit court, on the local bench this morning, overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Bertha Potts against the estate of the late Jefferson Churchill. An appeal was granted to the appellate court; ninety days given in which to file a bill of exceptions and thirty days given in which to file the bond of $2,500.

The case has been a hard fought one and involved deeds to property valued at $20,000. The action was to set aside the deeds in which the late Mr. Churchill conveyed the property to his son Earl Churchill. The case was originally tried before Judge John D. Megee, who found for the defendants. The motion for a new trial was then argued before Judge Blair.

The passing of the Potts-Churchill case from this court was the one hundred and fifth case taken from the docket this term. In ruling on the motion for a new trial Judge Blair stated the question involved in the case hinged on the delivery of the deeds and the intentions of Mr. Churchill.

According to the testimony, the deeds were drawn up by Marsh Stevens who in turn drew up the will of Mr. Churchill. The deeds were placed in the Rushville National bank. The court held that this act alone did not constitute actual delivery, but because the deeds were mentioned in the will of Mr. Churchill his intentions were plainly shown. The deeds were left at the bank until after his death. Judge Blair stated that in his opinion there could be little doubt as to the intentions despite the fact that an actual delivery possibly had not been made.

While here today Judge Blair also heard the motion for a new trial in the case of Harry Hudson against the estate of the late Jared Binford. The jury which heard the case returned a verdict for Hudson in the sum of $1. He demanded $7,000. The reason assigned for a new trial is that the verdict of the jury was not justified.

Judge Blair also heard an argument on a demurrer in the case of Pearl Short against Orbie Short, an action to modify a decree.

Judge Fred Gause was also here this morning attending to some legal business in several cases in which he is special judge.

LAWYERS TO HOLD PICNIC

Details Are Lacking, But it is Certain There Will be "Eats"

The members of the Rush County Bar Association will enjoy a picnic Monday afternoon. It is planned to make the event an annual affair. Details are lacking, but the main thing will be the "eats." The lawyers will find a spot on the banks of Flatrock, yet to be selected, and there throw the feed. There will be plenty of sport for all, according to the committee on arrangements.

Rushville Soldier Boys Are Receiving Guests from Home

Daily the contingent of Rushville young men who have enlisted and are in camp at Fort Benjamin Harrison with the Indiana National Guard receive scores of friends from "back home," and daily, also, friends of the "boys" bring back stories of their activities at the camp.

The report that all of the fellows from here who have enlisted in the state militia are in Battery B was confirmed by Rushville men who visited Camp Ralston yesterday afternoon. Dr. Hale Pearsey, Walter Gartin and Allan H. Blackledge have had the good fortune to be bunk mates and are all installed in the same tent. It was also reported that both Gartin and Blackledge had been chosen gunners' mates.

Battery B bids fair to be the most popular bunch of men in the national guard from this state. Medical examiners were profuse in their praise of the physique of the men of the battery, declaring that it proved the worth of the physical training. Most of the men in Battery B either are now or have been students in Purdue university and it is known as the Purdue battery.

It was nearly midnight Tuesday when Battery B was finally mustered into the federal service. The impressive ceremony is described as follows in the Indianapolis News:

It was a beautiful picture at the fort last night when Battery B, known as the Purdue university battery and commanded by Captain J. Harry McIvor, was sworn into service by Lieutenant Robert G. Kirkwood. At

FAMILIES ARE WELL CARED FOR

Homer Honor System at Meadow Prison is Accomplishing Great Good According to Warden.

HUMAN NATURE PLAYS PART

Sees That the Innocent Outside Are Protected and That the Dependents Get Food.

(By United Press.) Albany, N. Y., June 29.—While the Welfare League of Sing Sing is being much discussed today the Homer Honor System at the Great Meadow prison in Comstock is going on quietly accomplishing its reward in a host of redeemed men.

William J. Homer, warden at Great Meadow and his wife, known by the prisoners as "Our Lady of Comstock," are meeting with success because they know human nature and its needs.

"No man can be bettered in prison if his mind is ill at ease because he fears for his relatives outside," says Warden Homer today.

"Therefore, the first thing that is done when a man enters Great Meadow is to care for his family, see that it is protected and that the innocent will not suffer outside the prison walls while the guilty suffer within.

"The normal man is made out of the normal criminal by ethical, educational, physical and spiritual methods at Great Meadow.

"If a man is physically defective he can not reform until his weakness has been obviated."

Therefore Warden Homer deals with each man as an individual. One man may need to be placed where he can live in close touch with nature, so he is given work on the prison farm, while another man may be possessed with a desire for knowledge, he is placed at work in the prison library, or is given some sort of clerical work that will help him meet his desires.

Common sense love and charity are combined at Great Meadow and that is why 100 per cent of its men are making parole and 97½ per cent of its graduates are making good.

LOCALS WILL FACE STIFF OPPOSITION

National 40's, Which Will Play Here Sunday, Have Several Former Big Leaguers

AN OLD FED STAR WILL PITCH

In the lineup of the National 40's the Indianapolis team that will play here Sunday will be found several big leaguers, indicating the Rushville team will face stiff opposition. Powers, who was with the Newark Feds, last year will be in the box for the Indianapolis team. The lineup is as follows: Powers or Phillips, pitcher; Fisher, first; Grimes, short; Lane, third; Miller, center field; Huffbauer, right field; Rubush, left; Shoneyer, second; Atchinson, catch and Singleton, utility.

The Rushville team has been strengthened and will present the best lineup of the year. The team will lineup as follows: Hank, left; Linch, short; Sharp, right; Tompkins, first; Spacey, catch; Hank, second; Miller, third; Yazel, center; Hudelson, pitcher and Doll, Todd and Combs, utility. The game will be called at three o'clock and as this is a guaranteed attraction a large crowd is expected.

OLD RING STAR GOES TO FRONT

Frank Slavin is With a Canadian Regiment Awaiting Call to go to France

TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

Recalls Fight With Frank Gotch in Yukon—Claimed Foul in Third Round

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) BY WILBUR S. FORREST

London, June 15—(By Mail)—How Frank Gotch, champion wrestler, mixed wrestling with boxing against Frank Slavin, the veteran ringman, in the Yukon, is a story just told here for the first time.

Slavin, who has grown much grayer than he appeared twenty years ago as a ring favorite, is now in England with the latest Canadian contingent. His little mix with Gotch happened years ago when Gotch, under the name of Kennedy, was at Dawson in the Yukon trying to fix up wrestling matches when everybody wanted to see prize fights.

Here today Slavin staged the story with Jack Londonish settings - grizzled miners looking through blue tobacco smoke at the ring in Dawson's main emporium. Gotch, failing in wrestling matches agreed to take Slavin on for a ten round bout.

"In the first two rounds he came at me strong," related the old soldier-fighter. "I floored him two or three times. Then in the third round he dodged in and before I knew what was happening, he gripped me around the waist and threw me up in the air.

"I laughed, the referee laughed and in fact we all laughed. The referee said: 'Do you claim a foul?'"

"I said: 'Well, if I don't I suppose I'll never be able to come back into the ring again,' so, of course, I got the decision. But the big American farmer got more money out of it than he ever got for his wrestling bouts up there."

Slavin just now is delighting British sporting writers with his reminiscences. They flock to the military camp where Slavin's regiment is waiting for the call to France.

In Slavin's 54 years he has been a pioneer in the Australian bush and the Klondike as well as a leading prize ring favorite in England, America, Australia and Alaska. Before he was eighteen he had made $12,000 in the Australian gold field.

He then came to England and closed five years of boxing with his defeat of Peter Jackson.

Then he went to America and drifted into the prize ring limelight by knocking out Jack Kilrain in less than a round. San Francisco was the next stop.

"Those were the days before the big strike on the Yukon," said Slavin today, "but I decided to take the trip there through British Columbia. When we arrived in Alaska, my partner and I staked a claim on the Forty Mile river and I started to Skagway - 600 miles over the ice behind a dog team to get a guarantee for the concession.

"I got the concession and they gave me the official mail to carry back to the Government at Yukon. The concession is still working today - in fact, it has a hydraulic plant capable of handling 15,000 cubic yards a day."

Slavin related the cutting of the White Pass trail from the summit of White Pass to Lake Bennett in 1897. When he returned home his wife had given him up for dead.

"I made the first map of the White Pass and the railroad there now does not leave the route that my party followed by more than forty yards at any point," said Slavin.

Slavin has been a Canadian Justice of the Peace in late years.

Slavin's only son, Frank Charles Slavin (named after Charlie Mitchell) stands 6 feet, 1½ inches, like the elder Slavin. He is a sergeant-major in the Yukon company of the Western Scots and expects to come to Europe and take a hand in the fighting.

TO KEEP OFFICERS FROM TAKING HIM

Omar Stevens Obtains Writ of Habeas Corpus to Prevent Citation for Contempt

OUTGROWTH OF DIVORCE SUIT

Omar Stevens obtained a writ of habeas corpus this morning against Sheriff Cavitt of this county and William Hendrickson, sheriff of Fayette county, to prevent the officers from taking him to Fayette county to face a charge of contempt of court. The notice was served on Sheriff Cavitt by Coroner Lowell M. Green, as the sheriff was disqualified because the action was against himself.

The actual trial is set for tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. There is said to be a long story back of the present incident. The start was with the Huffman divorce suit tried in Fayette county. Mrs. Dessie Huffman is a niece of Stevens' and George Huffman, her husband was granted the divorce and the custody of their three-year-old son, with the stipulation that Mrs. Huffman should have him over Sunday every other week. On one of these visits the boy was taken ill and has been at the Stevens home ever since.

Now Stevens is cited for contempt of court and the habeas corpus proceeding resulted in order to keep him from appearing in Fayette county.

DEMAND IS MADE FOR NAVAL BASE

People of Northwest Insist That Entrance of Columbia River be Better Protected

REASONS ARE POINTED OUT

Two Bills Pending in Congress—Pacific Coast at This Point is Helpless

BY JOHN BARTRAM KELLY

(Written for United Press.)

Portland, Ore., June 29.—From Montana to the Pacific Ocean there has arisen during recent months a demand, persistent and serious, that the mouth of the greatest river on the Pacific Coast of America, the entrance to the 250,000 square miles of American territory, known as the Columbia Basin and the Inland Empire, receive governmental recognition by the establishment there of a naval base of the first class, with adequate fortifications to protect this investment.

The acorn from which this mighty oak of sentiment has grown is known as the Columbia Naval Committee.

In January F. C. Harley and Wallace R. Struble started the movement in Astoria.

The necessity for the naval base was an easy matter to prove. The Pacific Coast is so helpless at this moment that our military experts say that in case of an invasion the first stand American troops could make would be in the Bear River Valley in Utah. That means the evacuation of the Pacific Northwest.

Our naval base at Bremerton is entirely unprotected from a flank or rear attack so long as there is no adequate defense at the mouth of the Columbia. Furthermore, it is located 132 miles from the ocean and its entrance is dominated by territory of the greatest sea power in the world.

Strategically, the mouth of the Columbia is the key to the Northwest. From it to Alaska is open American roadstead and the shortest route.

It is the nearest point to Yokohama.

It is the entrance to the wheat belt, to three-fourths of our trans-continental lines, to a 500 mile navigable waterway, and to the only water grade route to the Northwest.

These are arguments which the residents of the basin considered before making their demands.

Commercial bodies of Eugene, Salem, Portland and Astoria have endorsed the movement. In March the city of Spokane, uniting with the naval base committee, held a preparedness convention in which five states were represented. This convention was held at the suggestion of P. N. Bernard of Kalispell, Mont.

Six hundred Portland business men have sent a long omnibus telegram to Washington in six sections, urging the necessity of the naval base. The present status of the campaign is considered favorable.

Secretary Daniels is considering the naval report of 1900 in conjunction with the army report of 1916.

Chairman of naval committees in the House and Senate are both friendly to the Hawley and Lane bills for the establishment of the naval base.

IS GIVEN POLICE POWERS

Residents in the neighborhood of the city park are watching closely the squirrels in the city park to see that no harm comes to them. The law governing the killing of squirrels is out on July 1, and any person mean enough could go to a worse place than the city park for his hunting. The police will protect the squirrels and arrests will surely follow, they say. In order better to protect the little animals three or four persons living in the neighborhood of the park have been given power by the police to make arrests if they find anyone shooting the squirrels.

ISAIAH ALFORD DEAD

Isaiah Alford, 68 years old, a well known farmer living north of Raleigh, was found dead in the barnyard at his home yesterday morning. Death was caused by heart disease. He is survived by two brothers.

Amusements

The Princess offers the three reel feature "The Caliph of the New Bagdad" for the first picture tonight. Leah Baird, Van Dyke Brook and an all-star cast produce this drama, which is said to be a powerful story of modern times. The other picture is a comedy entitled "A Double-Barreled Courtship." Tomorrow, matinee and night the six act feature, "The Raven" will be shown. Henry Walthall and Ward Howard are featured.

"Arrows of Hate" is the title of the 9th episode of the Pathe serial "The Iron Claw" which is shown at the Gem theatre today. Pearl White, Creighton Hale and Sheldon Lewis are featured. In this number Legar continues to carry on his villainous work but he is again foiled by Davy and the Laughing Mask. Who is the Laughing Mask? A comedy entitled "Bughouse Bell-Hops," which features Lonesome Luke, that Funny Fellow, completes the program. Tomorrow Billie Ritchie will be seen in an L-Ko comedy "A Friend—But a Star Boarder." "The Crimson Trail" a two act Imp feature will also be shown.

Days Pickings

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Edgar O. Price and Jessie R. Wills.

Kennard Allen is ill at his home in West Second street, being threatened with appendicitis.

Returns from the Dillon-Moran fight tonight will be received at Jack's Smokehouse, over the Daily Republican's leased wire.

Mrs. Mary Junken of Arlington suffered a painful injury Tuesday when she fell from a chair on which she was standing and fractured her leg directly above the knee. Mrs. Junken is 74 years of age, and is well known throughout the country.

A telegram bearing the signatures of twenty Richmond residents has been sent to Congressman Finly Gray at Washington urging him to support the bill before congress for the censorship of motion picture films.

Rushville will have to share the spotlight with Columbus because yesterday the officials found a wagon load of automobile parts on the farm of George Biseh, south of Columbus, which is expected to clear up the mystery of several stolen cars. On information from Columbus, Indianapolis officers arrested Donald Jackson and "Darby" Sherill for automobile thefts. These two men, it is alleged, have been driving the cars to the Biseh farm and they have over for selling.

A large attendance is desired at the meeting of the Rush County Amusement Association tonight at the court house. New officers are to be elected and the meeting is important.

Chief of Police Yahey has received a circular asking him to be on the watch for Martha Stewart, 14, and Charles C. Wheatley, 26, who eloped from Carrollton, Ohio, on June 3. Wheatley is a brother-in-law of the girl and had been married only three months when he eloped with his wife's younger sister.

The Voice of a Nation.

No more convincing demonstration of the vitality of religion in the United States could be found than the result of the appeals of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America for systematic and continuous giving to the war relief funds in this country. In every community, whether a church of one of the thirty denominations which constitute the Federal Council exists there or not both secular and denominational committees for war relief are being formed.

The effect of the Federal council's first appeal, sent out on May 15 to 100,000 ministers, did not stop with them and the 17,724,509 communicants under their charge, but seemed automatically to create a new atmosphere in the nation. In response to the request of many of the representatives of the war relief organizations which have benefited by this new spirit of unselfishness and self-sacrifice a second appeal was sent out this month, but not to the churches alone.

The second appeal was through the clergy to the entire people, but it also went direct to Chambers of Commerce, Business Men's Associations, Women's Clubs and similar bodies, and to the Mayors of cities and Governors of States. Many public men, of all political affiliations, have signified their approval of this movement. The nation has found voice in this largest inclusive body of its kind of the world.

No new war relief fund has been added to the existing organizations. The Federal Council acts only as a channel or clearing house, except in special cases. But many checks for distribution to the various existing funds have come to it direct. Some of the contributions are in cash. "I send you herewith $1.74 for Belgium war relief," wrote one man from Harlem, Ga. "You will please let me know if this goes right so I can send again." The tattered bill and battered change which he enclosed arrived miraculously intact. A minister and his wife wrote that their entire monthly income was $80. They sent $40, and promised to send that amount each month as long as it was needed. A southern minister wrote that a widow of his congregation had "offered her little mite, which I have eked out to a dollar." Contributions have ranged as high as $2400 and come from secular as well as religious bodies.

"All that has been given," said Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, General Secretary of the Federal Council, "is but a drop in the bucket compared to the awful widespread misery in Europe and Asia. The contributions from this country so far have amounted to scarcely more than a dollar for each suffered abroad. So long as this war lasts, and for months thereafter, no matter how much is given it will not be enough."

President Wilson gave Huerta a certain length of time to salute the flag. He also put a time limit on the demand for the release of American troops held prisoners at Chihuahua City. Let's hope he has better success this time.

Who will say now that a corporation has no patriotism or soul? Many of the large ones of the country are paying their National Guard employees their full salaries while they are on the border or in Mexico.

The ornamental flower boxes which were used in the business district of the city last summer were beautiful; but so much can be said for them because they are among the things that are missed.

We are informed that rubber was introduced into the United States in 1800. This, however, does not include that of the neck variety.

We once heard a preacher say that a rich man has a hard time crawling into heaven. But that isn't disturbing our blissful dreams.

They say that more married men than bachelors are fighting in England. Out of the frying pan into the fire?

Soon, now, we will begin to learn more details of our state of unpreparedness.

If you say something when you talk you may be asked to talk again.

Are we taking a mild summer plunge or a full Mexican bath?

Peace with honor, if we may; war to the hilt, if we must.

A guilty conscience never has to be told of its guilt.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

John U. Pettit.

John U. Pettit was one of the foremost judges produced in the hundred years of Indiana history. He was born in New York of good English stock, Sept. 11, 1820 and came to Indiana in 1840. He was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law at Wabash.

In 1844 Pettit was elected to the legislature and in 1850 was appointed United States Consul. After two years in the consular service he returned to take up the practice of law. Soon after returning he was appointed district judge. He served three terms in Congress and was speaker of the Indiana House of representatives in 1865.

Because of his able work on the bench he was appointed professor of law in Indiana University.

We have made up another lot of scratch pads and are now on sale at the Republican office.

AMERICANISM IS NOT AN ISSUE

Republican Association Says It Is Insult to People to Question Candidate's Patriotism

REAL ISSUE OVERLOOKED

Maintenance of American Rights and Protection of Her Industries Leading Questions

Washington, June 29.—The Republican Publicity association, through its president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement at its Washington headquarters:

"Maintenance of National dignity.
"Protection to American industries.
"Efficiency in Government service.
"Economy in National expenditures.

"These are policies successfully administered by the Republican party with resultant pride in American citizenship, prosperity in American business, and progress in American Government. They are policies in the administration of which the Democratic party has dismally failed, with consequent decline of American prestige, destruction of American industry and deterioration in public service.

"Upon the sincere advocacy of these policies and its demonstrated faithfulness in the performance of campaign pledges, the Republican party has won many victories in the past and upon these it will win again in November next.

"The so-called 'Americanism' of candidates is not and cannot be an issue in this or any other national campaign. To assume that any candidate who could be nominated by either party would be even subject to suspicion as to his loyalty to his country, is an insult to the intelligence of half the people of the United States.

"The soundness of judgment, stability of purpose and force of character of the individual candidate may well be a subject for discussion, but the question of the unqualified patriotism of the head of either ticket is too absurd for contemplation.

"The principles of the two parties, the records of accomplishment, the promises for the future, will be the basis for discussion and for the conclusion reached by the voters of the country, whose only purpose is to determine which party and which candidates best can serve.

"Efforts to divert attention from the real issues before the country are a practical admission that the party so endeavoring is ashamed of its record and afraid of free and open discussion.

Warsaw, June 29.—Fans of this city are assured of a day of racing July the Fourth. Entries closed today for both the horse and motorcycle events that are to be staged at the State Fair grounds.

The motorcycle events include a twenty-five mile, one ten mile and a five mile race, and some of the best riders have been entered by the different factories of the country. Entries have been kept down so that not more than eight men are permitted to enter any one event thereby giving the riders a better chance to "open up."

All the race will be under the direction of the Federation of American Motorcyclists with John Kinney, state referees, officiating.

MEAT ON TABLE IS GREAT EVENT

Families in Germany go Without Meat for Days and Weeks at a Time—Is Some Luxury

LITTLE WORK FOR BUTCHERS

Dresden Business Man Relates His Experience Telling How Difficult it is to Obtain

By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Rotterdam, May 27—(By Mail)—Many families in Germany go meatless for days and weeks at a time. This I have from a neutral business man of Dresden.

"It's as bad as housecleaning to get meat. It upsets our whole household economy as well as our financial economy. Its a dreadful operation and we don't go through it oftener than we have to. In the last sixteen days we have had meat twice.

"Fish, new asparagus just in the market, potatoes, spinach and dry, crumbling war bread made largely of potato flour, make up our list of edibles. We get so tired of it we hate to go to our table. Sometimes we even get so tired of it we decide we'll have meat. Then there's trouble."

He was requested to go into the details of a meat purchase in a German town.

"Well, its like this," he said, lighting a good cigar; (in some mysterious way a huge shipment of Havana cigars direct from Cuba reached Berlin the other day); "When we decide to have meat my wife and I talk it over the night before. If the next day is Tuesday or Friday we can't buy anything but fish, for those are meatless days.

"My wife calls our maid, and says: 'Elizabeth, we want you to buy a beefsteak for us tomorrow. Elizabeth frowns and goes out.

"This means that Elizabeth must get up at four o'clock the next morning and go to the nearest butcher shop and stand in line until her turn comes to buy meat or until the butcher comes to the door and says to the waiting line: 'I'm all sold out of meat.'

"It is always a four or five hour job for her, unless she wants to get into the queue at 1 o'clock in the morning, as some maids do.

"When my wife and I get up Elizabeth is down at the butcher shop and so I have to make the fires while my wife gets breakfast. I go off to the office and Elizabeth comes home at 8 or 9 o'clock, sore on the whole world.

"Sometimes she has been able to get meat but more often than not she comes back empty handed.

"Officially there are only two meatless days a week but in reality you find the butcher shops meatless day after day.

"I call up my wife sometimes during the morning to find out whether we are going to have meat for supper. If she says we are, I'm happy all day. You'd be surprised to know how much difference a little meat makes."

"How much would Elizabeth pay for a beefsteak?"

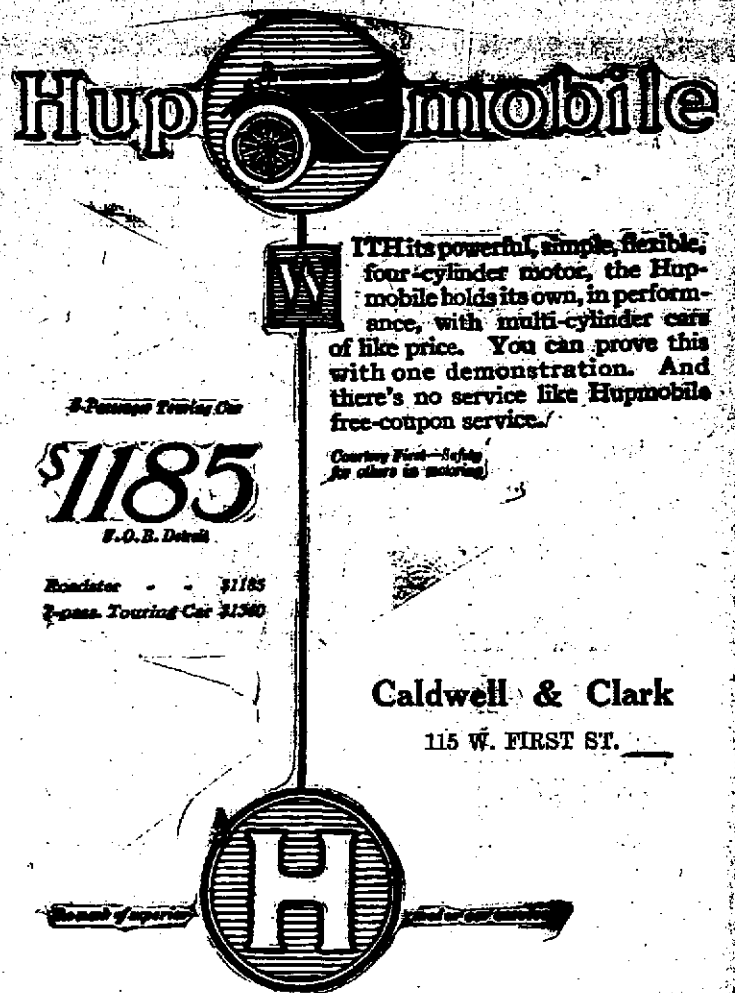

"Five marks and a half a pound. 'How we linger over supper when we have meat. Elizabeth hasn't done any work all day. She has been upset by her morning experience.

"You read of food riots in Berlin. That was only Elizabeth and her fellow maid fighting to keep their places in line.

"But about supper time Elizabeth wakes up, cooks the meat and brings it in with smiles all over her face. She knows she'll get her share. But if we asked her to go out for meat every meat day, she wouldn't stay with us.

"That's where the rich folks come in. They can hire maids who have no other work but to go through the meat riot daily.

"There are injustices galore about the food distribution in Berlin. That is why they have had food riots in front of the Reichstag and in front of butcher shops. (The next article will tell of the injustices in the distribution of food in Germany which give the rich man the best of it.)

The great war is causing a tremendous rise in leather and shoes, and is forcing prices SKY HIGH

The millions of soldiers in Europe are using up so many shoes that the shortage of leather is becoming a serious problem, and the burden must be borne by the citizen consumer. In America this condition is hitting us hard.

We strongly advise you not to delay your purchase, not only for yourself, but for the whole family. We do not know what the future prices will be, but whatever they are, neither the retailer nor the consumer can help himself.

Notice of Improvement Resolution.

To Whom It May Concern:

Rushville, Ind., June 29, 1916.
Notice is hereby given by the common council of the city of Rushville, Indiana, that it is desired and deemed necessary to make the following described public improvements in the city of Rushville, Indiana, as authorized by Improvement Resolution No. 52 adopted by said common council on the 20th day of June 1916.

The improvement of both sides of Maple street from Eighth street to Tenth street by grading, gutting and constructing cement curb and gutter.

All work done in the making of the said described public improvements shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions of said improvement resolution and the detailed drawings, plans, profiles and specifications which are on file and may be seen in the office of the city clerk of said city of Rushville.

The common council of said city has fixed, Tuesday, the 18th day of July, 1916, as a date upon which remonstrances may be filed or heard by persons interested in or affected by said described public improvement and, on said day at 7:30 o'clock p. m., said common council will meet in the council chamber in said city of Rushville for the purpose of hearing and considering any remonstrances which may have been filed, or which may be presented, and will hear all persons interested in or whose property is affected by said proposed improvements, and will decide whether the benefits that will accrue to the property, abutting and adjacent to the proposed improvements, and to said city, will be offset by the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, as estimated by the city civil engineer.

HAVE MANY GUESTS

10:55 o'clock Tuesday night Major Tyndall, commanding the battalion, sent details of men to obtain all the Prest-O-Lite tanks available on automobiles around the post. These were brought and lighted. The men of Batteries A and C stood in a square and held the lighted tanks aloft while the Purdue artillerymen were mustered in.

When the last man had passed before Lieutenant Kirkwood a great shout rang throughout the entire battalion. Then the tired gunners hurried away to bed while their comrades returned the borrowed tanks to

PRAISES T. R. FOR HIS ACTION

James E. Watson is Cheered by Reference to Roosevelt's Support of Charles E. Hughes

AN INDIANAPOLIS MEETING

Crowd Gives Demonstration When New Says No Man is His Friend Who is not Watson's

James E. Watson, Republican nominee for the United States senatorial short term, praised Theodore Roosevelt for his attitude in giving his support to Charles E. Hughes, at a meeting last night of Republican workers at the Marion Club, says the Indianapolis Star.

"I can not take my seat without saying a word of praise for the pa-their owners.

The oath administered to the guardsmen follows:

"All and each of you whose names are entered on this roll having been accepted into the United States service as commissioned officers or enlisted men of the militia this 27th day of June, 1916, for your current commission or enlistment unless sooner relieved by order of the President do solemnly swear that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, that you serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever and that you will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over you according to the rules and articles of war. So help you God."

DEMONSTRATION OF TRACTORS ARRANGED

Farmers Will be Interested in Showing Which Will be Made Week Before at State Fair.

AMUSEMENTS TO BE PROVIDED

(By United Press.) Farmers of Indiana as well as business men in general are showing an unusual interest in the gigantic demonstrations of tractors to be Aug. 28, just preceding the Indi-triotic conduct and magnanimity of Theodore Roosevelt, who proposes to march shoulder to shoulder with that great Republican leader, Charles E. Hughes, in this campaign." Mr. Watson said, in concluding his speech. The remark was greeted with enthusiastic applause from the men who assembled in the club gymnasium, and Watson was cheered for several minutes.

Preceding the speech by Watson, Harry S. New, the nominee for the long senatorial term, paid a high tribute to Watson.

"I can not consider any man in this campaign a friend of mine who is not a friend of my colleague, James E. Watson," Mr. New said, whereupon the audience rose and cheered wildly.

The meeting was an organization affair, and was presided over by James W. Fesler, chairman of the Seventh District. Will H. Hays, Republican state chairman, spoke, and urged that every precinct committeeman get to work now and perfect his organization in order that all would be in good working condition by the time the fall campaign opens. New and Watson also urged the importance of complete organizations everywhere.

ana State Fair. At this exposition, which will be held on a 600 acre site, six miles west of the city, tractors valued at one-half million dollars, representing firms of $350,000,000 capital will give demonstrations showing the wonderful achievements possible in agriculture by the use of these machines. All the leading accessory firms of the country also will have displays at the exposition.

In addition to the demonstrations, amusements of the highest character will be provided for the visitors. Sanitary features, complete telephone and telegraph facilities and many other conveniences will be provided on the grounds for the visitors. Everything will be absolutely free.

Thousands of farmers of Indiana and surrounding states already have signified their intentions to attend the demonstrations and preparations are being made to care for great crowds. The demonstrations will be highly instructive to farmers and are regarded as highly educational to persons interested in agriculture lines. Persons interested can get additional information by writing C. J. Bullock of the Advance Rumely Co., of Indianapolis.

The demonstrations, which will be given under the direction of the Indianapolis Tractor Club will be one of the gala events of Indiana's centennial year.

FIRST WHEAT IS CUT TODAY

Binder is Started on Wilbur Brown's Farm Near Orange

The first wheat of the 1916 crop in Rush county was cut today. The binder was started this morning in a field on Wilbur Brown's farm near Orange. Dave Alter of Orange township will begin cutting his wheat tomorrow and several other farmers in that neighborhood are also planning to follow suit. It was stated today that prospects for a good wheat crop were better than a few weeks ago.

Social Calendar

Friday

Informal dance at the skating rink, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Auction Bridge Club, with Mrs. Herman Tompkins at 306 West Third street in the afternoon.

George Poston of south of the city entertained yesterday Richard Pugh, William Sparks and Havens Frazee.

Miss Frances Neutzenhelzer went to Shelbyville today to be the guest of Miss Ruth Rhodes for a few days and to attend the dance this evening.

"500" CLUB

The twelve members of the "500" Club were pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Walter Easley at her home in N. Perkins St. At the close of the card series, the hostess served a dainty salad course. Mrs. Charles Green will be hostess for the next meeting.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS

The two missionary societies of the United Presbyterian church held their meetings yesterday afternoon. The Women's Missionary society met with Mrs. Robert Innis in North Harrison street. The principal number on the program was the report of the presbytery held recently in Caledonia, given by Miss Mary Fisher. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Young Ladies Missionary society had their regular monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. May Lancaster. During the informal afternoon, the hostess served a dainty repast. Both meetings were well attended.

CONFER DEGREE

The members of the Rebecca order at Homer visited the Shelbyville order on Tuesday evening and conferred the degree upon four candidates. The work was followed by an elegant two course banquet served by the Shelbyville ladies. About twenty-five members of the Homer order made the trip to Shelbyville, going in machines. Rather indefinite plans were made for the Shelbyville ladies to visit the members of the Homer order at some time in the near future.

LAST MEETING OF YEAR

At the meeting of the Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church held at the home of Mrs. Ben Cox, yesterday it was decided to hold no more regular meetings until fall. A few matters of business were brought up during the business meeting, after which the hostesses served a refreshing luncheon to the guests. There were about twenty in attendance and the hostesses were Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Earl Albright, Mrs. Sam Finney, and Mrs. Will Abercrombie.

MISS KITCHEN'S RECITAL

Worthy of highest praise was each number in the recital given by a part of the piano pupils of Miss Jessie Kitchen at the First Presbyterian church last evening. For the series of recitals, the church has been beautifully decorated. The platform is massed with ferns, intermingled with huge baskets of crimson ramblers. Resting on each radiator, were large baskets in which a profusion of pink roses were gracefully arranged. In this background, the charming young ladies appeared to give their part in the program. Each could be complimented for their technique, excellent selection, and rendition of the difficult numbers. B. F. Miller sang in his usual good voice, "In Native Worth" an aria from "The Creation" by Haydn. He was accompanied by Miss Kitchen. The young ladies appearing on the program were the Misses Helen Matlock, Helen Thomas Magdalen Arbuckle, Georgia Hunt, Brenda Kinsinger, Margaret Guffin,

The members of the D. T. Club are entertaining their husbands at a pitch-in supper this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank.

The Auction Bridge Club which meets regularly on Thursday, will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Herman Tompkins at her home in West Third street.

Mrs. Bennett's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian church will meet this evening with Mrs. J. R. Carmichael at her home in North Main street. All the members are requested to be present. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock.

HOUSE-GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinkle of Fifth and Harrison streets had as guests yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hood and daughter, Edna, of Indianapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Putman Mills and children, Eva and Francis, of Alma Michigan were also their guests and will remain for a week's visit. Mr. Mills is a brother of Mrs. Hinkle.

WI-HUB DINNER

The members of the Wi-Hub Club had a pitch-in dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Green of East Fifth street last evening. An elegant dinner was served and social evening enjoyed by the members of the club who are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Carr, Mrs. Anna B. Cox, Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Abercrombie, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. McClanahan, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Innis. Plans for a picnic to be held the 4th of July were discussed.

SCHLICK-SCHANTZ

A wedding of interest in this city was solemnized yesterday morning at Columbus, when Edward Schantz, formerly of this city, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schantz was the bridegroom. Those from here attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Schantz and daughters Bertha and Henrietta, Mrs. Miller Whitton and the Rev. Father Lyons. Miss Henrietta Schantz acted as bridesmaid during the ceremony. The following account of the wedding is given in the Columbus Republican: The marriage of Miss Emma Schlick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schlick, and Edward Schantz was solemnized Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Bartholomew's Catholic church, Rev. Father J. B. Delaney officiating, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The young couple was attended by Miss Henrietta Schantz, a sister of the bridegroom, and Albert Schad, an uncle of the bride. Miss May Kline was the ringbearer.

The bride wore a beautiful white taffeta and net gown and carried a bouquet of brides' roses. The long tulle veil was also caught with a chaplet of the roses. The bridesmaid was in a pretty yellow taffeta silk and her bouquet was yellow roses.

Following the ceremony at the church the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schlick on California street where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served to forty relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schantz left Wednesday evening for a wedding trip, which will include Cincinnati, O., Indianapolis and different places in Indiana and will be at home to their friends after July 5 at the handsomely furnished home on Union street at the corner of Twelfth street.

Mr. Schantz is a member of the firm of Stuckey & Schantz, cement contractors.

WITH MRS. FRAZEE

The pleasure connected with the meetings of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club was continued yesterday afternoon when the eight members of the club were the guests of Mrs. Charles Frazee at her home in North Main street. A very delicious and refreshing luncheon was served after the ladies had enjoyed several rounds of Bridge.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Sarah Guffin entertained at dinner yesterday Mrs. Fannie Ridenbaugh, Mrs. Will McVay of Richmond, Mrs. Maggie Hoffman of Toledo, and Will Mitchell of Butte, Mont. A delicious dinner was served. Today at dinner Mrs. Willard Brown entertained with a prettily appointed dinner, Mrs. Ridenbaugh, Mrs. Guffin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dill, and Will Mitchell.

PLAN BAZAAR

At the meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church held with Mrs. S. G. Huntington yesterday afternoon, it was decided to hold a bazaar in November and to work toward that end. It was also announced that $75 of the $500, which the society pledged toward the new church, has already been raised. A good attendance of about 18 members was present.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Smith gave a prettily appointed dinner party at high noon today at their home at 728 North Perkins street. The guests included Mrs. E. H. Enners of Indianapolis, the mother of Mrs. Smith who is her houseguest, Mrs. H. Bloom of Indianapolis, Mrs. Walter Frazee of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Mitchell of Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Ella Personette of Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Will McMillin of Gings.

DEMME-BOEHM

Miss Alta Demmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Demmer west of the city, and Paul Boehm of Indianapolis were quietly married this morning at about ten o'clock by the Rev. C. M. Yocum at the Christian church parsonage. Mr. Boehm has been employed here for the past few months as circulation manager for the Indianapolis News. The wedding comes as a great surprise to the many friends of the bride and bridegroom. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boehm left for a short honeymoon through the East. They will make their permanent home in this city.

The bride, who is a beautiful young lady, was especially attractive this morning in a navy blue taffeta suit, wearing a large white picture hat.

GUEST DAY

The Fourth of July was anticipated in the decorations used at the home of Mrs. Fred Lightfoot of Raleigh yesterday when the members of the Sunshine Embroidery Club observed guest day. Flags draped gracefully in all of the rooms, and bunting twining about the columns in the hall gave the beautiful home a patriotic atmosphere. Summer flowers of all kinds graced the top of the piano; in the living room flags were twined about the chandeliers; flags were draped about the mantles; and the dining room was particularly attractive with flags, large and small, in every conceivable corner. Crimson ramblers, with their bright red shades corresponding with the red in the flags, formed a number of bouquets.

Punch was served throughout the afternoon with Mrs. Alva Poer and Mrs. Cora Aiken presiding over the punch bowl. The favors were given in a exceedingly clever way. A huge cannon cracker made of tissue paper hung above the guests in the hall way. As the guests drew their favors of tiny silken flags from the cannon cracker, a shower of confetti dropped down and a report sounded, which was afterwards found to be from a cracker outside.

One of the most delightful features of the entertainment was the informal musical program given by several of the guests. The numbers, each of which was well given follow:

Piano solo—Miss Thompson of Falmouth.

Piano and vocal solo—Mrs. Russell Baken.

Vocal solo—Miss Susan Glidder of Lewisville.

Violin solo—Miss Lucy Rutledge of Knightstown, accompanied by

Miss Dorothy Sipe of Carthage at the piano.

Piano solo—Miss June Lightfoot.

Piano solo—Miss Lucile McIlwaine.

Recitation—Miss Margaret Ball.

Recitation—Miss Vera Bowles.

Recitation—Miss Marcella Gilden.

Recitation—Miss Eloise Nipp.

Mrs. Kerr of Connersville won the honors in the clever musical contest, the names of popular airs to be guessed from a romance of two lovers before "Robin Adair" leaves for war. As the guests entered the dining room, they were asked to identify the members of the Sunshine Embroidery Club from their baby pictures which hung about the room.

While in the dining room, the ladies were served with an elaborate two course luncheon.

The affair was a success, from start to finish. The committees, to which great credit is due for the charming afternoon afforded the guests, were composed of program committee, Mrs. Cahmbers, Mrs. Smullen, and Mrs. Bell; refreshment committee, Mrs. Poer, Mrs. Smullen, and Mrs. Aiken; decorating committee, Mrs. Hollowell, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Lightfoot.

Nineteen out of the twenty members of the club were present from Raleigh and the vicinity. Each of them invited one guest and the guests included ladies from Connersville, Falmouth, May's, Lewisville, Rushville, and Raleigh. They were: honorary members, Mrs. Hall Hopper of Dunreith and Mrs. Charles N. Sweet of this city, who were charter members of the club; Mrs. Heineman, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Broadus and Miss Broadus of Connersville; Mrs. Helms, Mrs. Pottet, Miss McIlwaine, Mrs. Glidden, daughter Susan, of Lewisville; Mrs. Lucy Rutledge of Knightstown; Mrs. Sipe and daughter, Dorothy of Carthage; Mrs. Homer Nash and Mrs. Al Sharp of this city; Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Will Hall, Mrs. Ralph Miles, Mrs. Smullen, Mrs. Clarence Rich, and Mrs. William Matthew of Raleigh.

THREE PERSONS OF NOTE ON PROGRAM

Speakers For Teachers Institute to be Held Chautauqua Week Are Announced Today.

AT COURT HOUSE MORNINGS

The program for the teachers' institute to be held in connection with the Rush County Chautauqua has been completed. The morning sessions of the institute will be held in the assembly room of the court house this year, instead of the auditorium at the Graham Annex.

C. C. Ellis of Huntington, Pa., who has been here for several years past, will again be one of the headliners. H. G. Brown, superintendent of the Lebanon schools, will also have a prominent place on the program. Miss Nina Lambkin, a community worker of note, will appear on the program every morning. Miss Lambkin specializes on playground work and through her a line of educational training will be brought to the teachers. All of these speakers will also take part in the sessions of

Condemned Man Says He Will Never Hang as he Has Been Re-
rieved Five Times.

Sheriff and Governor Get Into Row
and as Result Scott Continues to Live.

(By United Press.)

Murphysboro, Ill., June 29—Ell-ston Scott, Illinois' most reprieved murderer, sits calmly in his cell in the county jail here, confident he never will hang for the murder of his sister-in-law at Carbondale last summer.

Scott was sentenced to hang October 16th last but has been reprieved five times by Governor Dunne. His latest reprieve gives him life until July 14.

The many reprieves grow out of a dispute between Governor Dunne and Sheriff White of Jackson county.
Shortly before the date set for Scott's hanging here Joe Deberry, another negro murderer expiated his crime on the gallows.

Large posters announcing that moving pictures of the hanging would be shown at a local moving picture theatre reached Governor
Dunne, shortly before the date Scott
He made an investigation and, according to his statement, two thousand persons, most of who had paid $2 for their tickets, saw the Deberry hanging.

Believing the hanging of Deberry a disgrace to Illinois Governor Dunne, history before the date Scott was scheduled to hang, wired Sheriff White of this county to send him the specific number of persons who would witness the execution.

Sheriff White replied by stating he would comply with the law which, in this state, allows him a sufficient number of deputies to prevent trouble.

The answer did not satisfy Governor Dunne and he reprieved Scott.
The same routine has been gone through five times. Now Scott insists he will never hang.

Governor Dunne insists he never will commute Scott's sentence to life, as the crime was "too revolting to be expiated by anything but death."

Governor Dunne is especially antagonistic to capital punishment and might see Scott still alive when his term expires next March.

WILL MARK THE CAMPAIGN START

Conference of Republican Leaders
Will be Held in Indianapolis
Tomorrow

NO LET-UP 'TIL ELECTION

Session Will be Confined to Republican Organization and the Nominees

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—The conference of Republican leaders from every county in the state that will be held at Republican state headquarters in the Hotel Severin at noon Friday, will mark the formal opening of the 1916 campaign in Indiana. From the close of that conference until the polls close on November 7th, according to State Chairman Will H. Hays, who called the conference, there will not be a moment's let-up and the on-rushing Republican battle array will increase its clip with every passing moment.
Indiana is to be the political battlefield of the nation this year and the Republicans intend to set the pace as they have since the early months of 1914.

The coming conference will be confined to county chairmen, district chairmen, congressional nominees and candidates on the state ticket.

"Serious matters of organization and confidential plans of the campaign will be discussed," was all Chairman Hays would say regarding the coming conference.

It is understood that the Republicans will lay particular stress on organization work during July and August. However, there will be considerable speaking during that time as the demand for speakers is pouring into state headquarters so insistently that it will be necessary to open the speakers bureau much earlier than usual this year. Jesse E. Eschbach, of Warsaw, who will be manager of this department again this year, will attend the coming conference. He expects to get down to work at state headquarters about the middle of the coming week.

"Republican activity begins in earnest with this conference," said
L. W. Henley, secretary of the Republican state committee. "The enthusiasm that exists over the national ticket is highly encouraging. Reports indicate that the party is again reunited and that untold hundreds of disgusted Democrats have already been attracted to the party's standard. The demand for speakers is increasing. Already a number of county and district rallies have been scheduled for the summer months, but generally speaking Republican interest during the coming two months will center in organization work. Indiana Republicans intend to be prepared properly."

EDITORS HOLD OUTING.

Angola, June 29.—Twelfth district Republican editors held an outing at Crooked Lake near here today. State Chairman Will H. Hays and Harry
S. New, nominee for United States senator, attended the meeting.

Philadelphia, June 29.—Address-

Continuing he said:

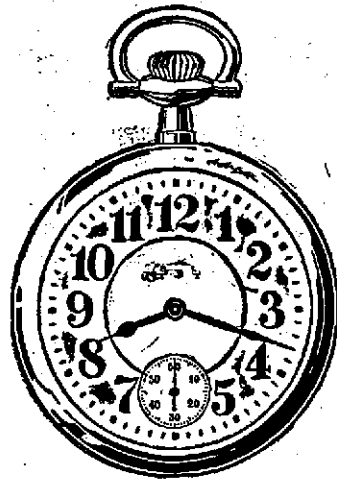

The Associated Advertising Clubs

an unselfish patriotic way to help improve and solve our many merchandising problems, which are related so vitally to the business

But I question whether you gentle-

DENIES HE MADE REMARK ABOUT HUGHES' BEARD

Professor James O. Griffin, reputed to have told nominee he had no more beard than hen egg when Hughes appeared at Delhi, N. Y. academy to teach, says it is false.

The following from the Stanford Palo Alto News, published at Palo Alto, Cal., for the community centering about Palo Alto and Stanford University, concerns the famous anecdote which has been repeated much of late as the reason for Hughes hiding behind a beard since he was nineteen years of age. The paper was received by a Rushville man, who has relatives at Palo Alto:

One of the classic anecdotes about Charles Evans Hughes is that which ascribes the genesis of his beard to the chiding remark of the principal of an academy in Delhi, N. Y., where young Hughes taught just after graduating from college, that young Hughes had "no more beard than an egg." The principal, according to the story, was afraid that the youthful appearing teacher would not be able to maintain discipline among the boys.

Professor James O. Griffin, head of the German department at Stanford, is the academy principal referred to, but he never made the remark. He did not himself at that time have any beard, he explains, and he did not think of criticizing the young teacher on that score. But he was indeed afraid that Mr. Hughes with his fresh college diploma from Brown, and his fresh young face would have difficulty in maintaining the ascendancy over the boys who were to be placed under his charge in the dormitory.

This was in the fall of 1881, and the school was the Delaware Academy at Delhi, N. Y. A fine, big giant of a young fellow had failed as a teacher right at the beginning of the term, and had left—the academy, as a matter of the kind of fact that is stranger than fiction, because he was homesick. Professor Griffin had heard of Hughes who had graduated from Brown that spring with a brilliant scholarship record at the age of 19, and he telegraphed to him. This was on Friday and on Monday Mr. Hughes presented himself at the academy.

The principal of the academy was not very favorably impressed with the boy's appearance; he did not look as if he would be capable of keeping the floor under his charge in the boys' dormitory in check. So Professor Griffin played safe. "Now, Mr. Hughes," he said, "you don't know me and I don't know you. I suggest that we try each other out for a month. If at the end of that time you don't care to stay, why you feel perfectly free to go, and if it seems best to me I shall be able to tell you so without the difficulty that might come about if we did not have such an understanding." Young Hughes quietly agreed, "And," says Professor Griffin, telling about the incident now, "after the first day, there was never any doubt in my mind, and I never thought of it again but at the end of the month Mr. Hughes came to me. 'Well, Professor Griffin,' he said, 'the month is up; do you want me to stay?' 'Yes, Mr. Hughes,' I replied, 'as long as I teach.'

"But young Hughes did not make a deeply favorable impression on first acquaintance in those days; he was young and quiet and retiring. I remember one evening the faculty of our academy—there were nine on it—were the guests at another academy at dinner. After the dinner the principal of that academy said to me, 'I like the teachers you have, Griffin, except this youngster, Hughes. I can't see why you have him.' 'That's because you don't know him,' I replied. 'He has more brains than all your faculty and all mine put together.'

"Mr. Hughes came to the academy," Professor Griffin explained, "to teach Greek and higher mathematics, but he taught French also after he came. But his most wonderful work was in teaching the boys in public speaking. In those days, of course, great attention was given to oratory in such schools as this. Mr. Hughes in these classes had the power to arouse tremendous enthusiasm for the work on the part of boys. There was no drudgery they wouldn't undergo to excel in that work for him. They were carried away with the young teacher's power. And in this work he showed the marvellous memory that he had; he always learned each boy's oration before the boy himself had learned it, and could prompt without the speech in his hand.

A story illustrating his ability as a speaker and his memory is one that Professor Griffin tells of a dinner in honor of the poet Burns in a Scotch community which the members of the academy faculty attended. Hughes was called on to make a speech, although he had not expected to be. The other speakers had come with their remarks all ready, but Hughes made by far the best talk of the evening, quoting extensively from Burns's writings in the course of it, and made a great hit with the Scotchmen.

While he was teaching at Delaware Academy Hughes was studying law with Judge Gleason, the father of Lafayette Gleason, a student in the academy at the time and now a leading figure in New York state Republican politics, who was conspicuous in the recent activities at Chicago that led to the nomination of Hughes.

At that time, according to Professor Griffin, the ambition of the young Hughes was to become a first-class lawyer, and United States senator from New York. He did not, apparently think of the presidency of the United States, nor of the governorship of his state, nor a place on the Supreme Court bench. From the academy Hughes went to Columbia, from which he graduated and became a full-fledged lawyer in 1184. His success was pronounced. He was a tremendous worker, and his reputation as a painstaking and thoroughly grounded counsellor grew rapidly after his first small cases. He was taken into the office with Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina and Walter Carter in New York. The latter was head of the firm and the father of the girl whom Hughes married.

Professor Griffin and Mr. Hughes have been close and strong friends ever since the days of their academy association, and he and Mrs. Griffin are ardent admirers of Mrs. Hughes whom they also know in an intimate friendship.

Mrs. Hughes became alarmed for fear that Hughes with his growing law practice, which was taxing all his time and strength, would break down, and she wished that he could get a position as a professor of law in a university. In 1891, Hughes had a case in Utica, N. Y., and visited the Griffins at Ithaca, Professor Griffin then being on the faculty at Cornell, and told them of Mrs. Hughes' wish that he might "settle down" for a while as a college professor. Just before that the eminent Professor Francis Burdick had left Cornell to go to Columbia, and the result was that his place was offered to Hughes and accepted.

Incidentally, this case at Utica was interesting as showing something of the Hughes character. Hughes told the Griffins that he was opposed to an extremely shrewd veteran of the bar in the litigation and it was a very difficult case. "I'm going to win the case," he said, "but to do it I shall have to have a portion of the civil code of the state eliminated—as unconstitutional." Which is exactly what he did do.

Hughes was a professor at Cornell for two years and a special lecturer there for several years after that.

The Maxwell is an Automobile of Remarkable Consistency

You want a motor car that will serve you consistently.

You want to know that your car can be relied upon day in and day out.

You want high mileage per gallon of gasoline and freedom from repairs and readjustments.

And you want these things, not occasionally, but continuously—day after day.

On these qualities the Maxwell has made good. It has proved its worth.

When the Maxwell stock touring car set the World's Motor Non-Stop Mileage Record a short time ago, it travelled for 44 consecutive days and nights, and its performance was consistent.

It went about 500 miles each and every day.

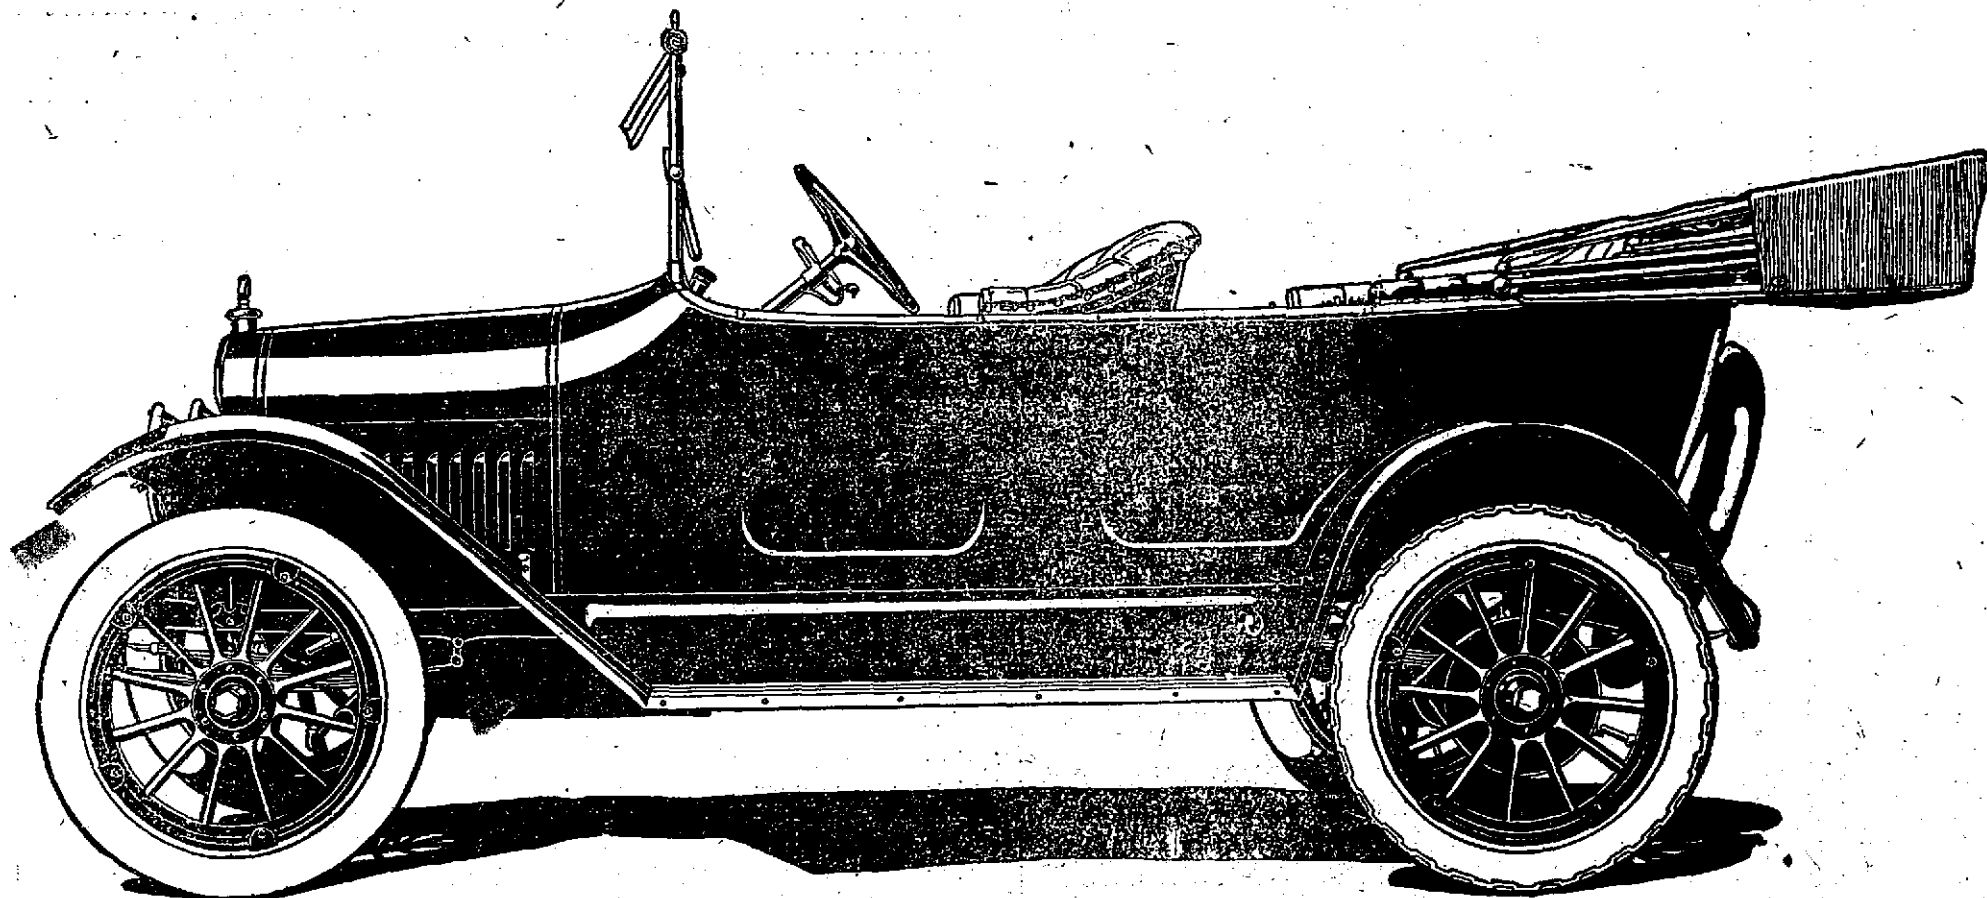

It went within a small fraction of 22 miles to every gallon of gasoline.

It went the whole distance of 22,000 miles—probably further than you would travel in two years—without any repairs or readjustments.

Every one of eight tires (two sets) went just about 9,800 miles and the others finished in good shape.

For consistency and reliability this record far excels anything we ever heard of.

A word of warning—it is not wise to wait too long. The demand for Maxwells is growing so that in a very short time the factory output, tremendous as it is now, will not be able to meet the demand. If you wait too long, you might be forced to content yourself with some other make of car which, first and last, will cost you much more than the Maxwell.

MANY ATTEND CONFERENCE

School Superintendent and Supervisors Gather in Lafayette.

(By United Press.) Lafayette, June 29.—If twenty-one teachers direct the activities of 445 boys and girls so effectively that the children add $26,000 to the productive wealth of the state during the summer, why should it not be wise to increase the number of these supervisory teachers.

That school superintendents and school officials are answering this question in the affirmative was shown today when a conference for teachers employed as supervisors in home work in agriculture convened at Purdue University. The number of teachers attending the two day conference is greater than ever before. A number of school superintendents, school trustees and farmers' institute workers are attending the conference.

SOME ACTION IS EXPECTED

Progressive Committee to Determine Status of Party.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, June 29.—What will be the status of the Progressive party in Indiana in the coming campaign? This was the question that confronted the Progressive state committee when it met here today.

Deserted by their national leader, Col. Roosevelt, and abandonment by their state chieftain, Ex-senator Albert J. Beveridge, many of those who broke off from the old parties in 1912 advocated going "back home." Others asserted that both of the old parties another lesson and proposed putting state ticket in the field.

The state committee was to hear from National Committeeman William H. Dye, a report on the Chicago conference and then vote whether the Progressive party in Indiana should go into history or become a factor in the campaign.

NEW TERRITORY.

Bluffton, June 29.—The Purdue University poultry train invaded new territory in its deathly raid on Indiana roosters when it stopped here today. Wells County farmers were given lessons in methods of incriminating and bettering the egg crop through the selling of the roosters, and in methods of handling eggs for market.

"A. B. A." Cheques level the way for the traveler

These Cheques are particularly convenient for the motor tourist. Since they are accepted like cash by hotels, auto supply dealers, merchants and railroad companies, in payment of bills and services, the owner does not have to wait until banking hours before using them. The only identification needed is the countersignature of the owner in the presence of the person accepting the Cheques.

CENTENNIAL ACTIVITY IS INCREASING IN THE STATE

Jackson county is planning ambitiously for its celebration to be held at Seymour, September 11-16. Miss Kate Andrews, principal of the Shields High School, is writing the pageant story.

Oakland City, the home of the historian Col. W. M. Cockrum, author of "A Pioneer History of Indiana" and "The Underground Railway" put on a pageant June 14-15, on the Oakland City College Campus, under the direction of Grover W. Sims. Incidents described in Col. Cockrum's books were presented in the pageant.

E. P. Hawkins, Fayette County's energetic chairman, has secured the Pathe moving picture people to film the celebration scenes at Connersville, July 3, 4, and 5. This is Centennial spot light for certain.

Grant County, under the leadership of Mayor James O. Batchelor of Marion, is planning for a bona fide county pageant and celebration August 2-3. Boy scouts will be sent with trumpets throughout the towns and countryside of Grant, to herald the celebration.

Marshall county is preparing to erect grand stands to accommodate five thousand people at the pageant which is to be given on August 9 at Plymouth.

City, July 20-22, at Troy, August 10, and Cannelton, September 3-9, Perry County may be said to be surging with Centennial enthusiasm.

Garrett has a surplus in the treasury after its Centennial celebration, part of which will be used to take the school children to the DeKalb County celebration at Auburn, October 4-6.

Several Centennial pageants and celebrations are scheduled for July 4; Fayette County at Connersville, July 3-5 pageant on the 5th; Johnson County at Franklin's pageant; Spencer County at Rockport July 3-4, pageant on the 4th, written by Mrs. Kate Milner Rabb of Indianapolis; Winona Assembly, Kosciusko County, week of July 3-8; Swayzee in Grant County, processional pageant illustrating transportation, settlement and development.

F. A. Miller, chairman of St. Joseph County, admits that the celebration at South Bend, October 3-5 will eclipse all comers. South Bend people have been taking the measure of their friendly rivals and know what they have to do. A big feature planned is the singing by a chorus of six thousand voices of the new Centennial hymn, written for the occasion by pageant Master, Henry B. Roney of Chicago.

O. J. Neighbours, Chairman of Wabash County, reports that a feature of their celebration, September 3-6, will be the formal visiting on one day of the points of historic interest in the county, which will be appropriately marked and at some of which public exercises will be held.

Michigan City is planning for a big celebration some time in August in which nearly one hundred organizations are said to be represented. The Indiana State Prison is considering the presentation of a pageant during the week of celebration.

The Earlham College Quaker pageant netted a profit of, between four and five hundred dollars which will probably be turned over to the new gymnasium fund.

Floyd County's date of celebration at New Albany has been changed from September 14 to 21, owing to the fact that the former date has been fixed upon as Indiana day at the Kentucky State Fair.

It is rumored that De Pauw University and Putnam County have started another get together movement looking toward a Centennial pageant to be given this fall. Official confirmation is eagerly awaited.

Clay county has decided upon a pageant as the form of celebration to be given at Brazil, September 29 and 30.

The Sisters of St. Benedict of the Convent of the Immaculate Conception at Ferdinand conducted a Centennial week June 11-18 in connection with the closing exercises of the Academy.

The Kosciusko county celebration takes place at Warsaw, June 29—July 2. The first day will be devoted to a Home Coming, and Warsaw high school reunion, followed on succeeding days by reunions of old students of the public schools in general. An excellent historical exhibit has been arranged, and a Centennial parade for Saturday. Sunday will be Home coming day in the churches. Miss Harriet Frazer is County Chairman.

The Cornelia Cole Fairbanks Chapter, D. A. R. publicly unveiled on June 21, the marker which is had erected at the corner of Washington St. and Southeastern Avenue, Indianapolis, marking the crossing of the old National and Michigan Roads.

It is a case of "on again" with the Tippecanoe County Celebration. At a citizens' mass meeting held at Lafayette, June 6, the Centennial idea was resuscitated and Judge H.

H. Vinton named to lead in plans of observance.

Teachers and pupils of school No. 45, recently unveiled a stone placed in honor of Camp Morton at Alabama and Washington streets near what was probably the southern entrance to the historic camp of Indiana's Civil War heroes.

It will be open season for governors at the Boone County celebration Sept. 14-16, at Lebanon. Of course, Governor Ralston will be "at home" to all on that occasion and in addition Governor Pleasant of Louisiana and Governor Bilbo of Mississippi will participate. There's a reason. A live newspaper man in the person of Ben McKay is guiding Boone's Centennial activities.

HE IS REMEMBERED.

(By United Press.)
Seymour, June 29.—Hundreds of postcards, of all sizes, colors and shapes, rained today upon Philip Nicholson, who is celebrating his 80th birthday anniversary at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Lemmons, in Detroit, Mich.

For twenty-five years Nicholson has been custodian of the Shields high school building. Former pupils of the schools, many of whom are the fathers and mothers of the present day pupils, entered into a peaceful conspiracy to shower the old man with postcards on his natal day.
